THE WONDERS OF NEW DELHI.

HOW INDIA'S CAPITAL ROSE FROM THE DESERT.

BUT SIMLA HOLDS ITS OWN DURING THE SUMMER HEAT OF INDIA.

The end of October always sees the return journey of the great trek which each year marks the transfer of the Government of India from Delhi to its mountain fastness at Simla.

When the establishment of the new winter capital was undertaken and angry critics argued the impossibility of creating a pleasant city in the midst of a snake-ridden, dust-clouded wilderness, one used to fortify one's faith by recalling that Washington rose upon a site originally much more forbidding. Now, instead of pinning faith to an example elsewhere, it is only necessary to look for proofs of success. There are still those who have a lingering notion that the new capital is unbearable because of its dust, but people whom circumstances take there from the best residential part of Old Delhi never want to go back.

The old idea that the building of the new capital represented a gross waste of public money has been exploded. The expenditure upon the preparation of the site, the construction of over 40 miles of roads, and the provision of the great Secretariat buildings, of the Viceroy's new palace, and of houses for officials will hardly approximate to double the cost of the new London County Council Hall. The latest ascertainable figure is 14 crores of rupees, the equivalent of somewhat less than £10,500,000. The Government of India offices have in recent years greatly expanded, and to have provided the necessary additional accommodation on that account in Calcutta would have cost much more.

A Growing City.

Now Delhi was originally planned for a population of 70,000. It has long had more than half this number in the height of the season. The figure has dropped a little in the past year or two, as the labour force engaged in building operations has diminished, but there is still a heavy call upon residential accommodation, and building is proceeding as quickly as the development of the necessary municipal services permits.

Lord Hardinge, who was Viceroy when the decision to found the new city was taken, has been invited to visit it next cold weather to see the completion of the work he launched. If he does so he will see a transformation which even his imagination can hardly have foreseen when, with Sir Edwin Lutyens, he came out in the spring of 1912 and surveyed the broken, stony, barren plain. To look at the city to-day from the Ridge, which runs behind it, or from the vantage point of the Raisina hill on which the Secretariats stand, is to see a garden settlement. Where there was nothing but brown waste there is now green grass, embroidered with rich trees and with well-scattered white bungalows peeping out from among them. The soil is amply irrigated from the River Jumna.

The place, in the first of the two flowering seasons which the cold weather brings, is a joy to the eye. There are masses of blue phaselias, bright linarias in various colours, pink, blue, and scarlet phlox, red tobacco, light blue lupins, scarlet poppies, and blue and red petunias. Among them all are many beautiful rose trees. These find the climate and soil of New Delhi highly favourable, and the Viceregal gardens contain 120 beds of them. The horticultural department tends the gardens throughout the year of all the official residences as well as the open public parks and gardens.

Social Amenities.

The social life of New Delhi is still at an early stage. Socially, the chief period of the year is February, when the session of the Indian Legislature brings in folk from the farthest corners of India. The Imperial Delhi Horse Show exercises an influence upon another class spread over a great part of the land. The Ruling Princes come here for meetings of their Chamber. The Prince of Wales Polo Cup and other polo fixtures are also attractions.

HOME FOOTBALL RESULTS.

ENGLISH AND SCOTTISH LEAGUE MATCHES ON SATURDAY.

PREMIER LEAGUE LEADERS WIN: ENGLAND BEAT WALES IN THE INTERNATIONAL.

Chelsea and Sheffield Wednesday were the only visiting teams in the First Division of the English League who took full points on Saturday, the points being shared in two other cases. Derby County were among the latter and dropped from second to fourth place. Arsenal, Blackburn and Sunderland each scored five goals against the visitors.

Everton strengthened their lead in the Second Division by a 5-0 victory over Stoke. West Brom. and Preston N.E. were both beaten, and Burnley, winning by an odd goal, took a higher place.

Notts County and Northampton, at the top of the Southern Section, shared the points. Lincoln lost the top place in the Northern Section to Tranmere on a better goal average.

Celtic ousted Partick from the top of the Scottish League. The Rangers are close behind with a 7-1 win over Morton. Cowdenbeath beat Leith by the same margin.

The following are the results of League matches, an International match in Wales, and a meeting of American Universities:

CONSUMPTION HAS BEEN CURED.

A REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION HAS BEEN FOUND.

DERK P. YONKERMAN, DISCOVERER OF THE NEW REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Marvellous as it may seem after centuries of failure, a remedy has been discovered that has cured the deadly Consumption even in the advanced stages of the disease. No one will longer doubt that Consumption can be cured after reading the proof of hundreds of cases cured by this wonderful discovery—some after change of climate and all other remedies tried had failed, and the cases had been pronounced hopeless of cure. This new remedy has also proved itself effective and speedy in curing Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, and other serious throat and lung troubles. In order that all in need of this wonderful produce of science may test its efficacy for themselves, a Company has been formed to give it to the world, and a Free Trial Treatment can be obtained by writing the Derk P. Yonkerman Co., Ltd. (Dept. C. 287) 118/120, Fleet St., London, E.C. 4, enclosing 6d. in British Postal Order to cover cost of carriage and packing, and mentioning this paper. The trial treatment will then be sent by return mail, carriage paid.

ABSOLUTELY FREE.

Do not wait if you have any of the symptoms of Consumption, if you have Chronic Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pains in your Chest, a Cold on your Lungs, or any Throat or Lung Trouble; write to-day for a free trial treatment and book of instructions, and benefit yourself before it is too late.

MAINTAINING APPEARANCES.

THE WONDERS OF NEW DELHI.

Many people ask whether Delhi will ever become an all-the-year-round capital of India. They wonder whether, in these days of electric light and fans, and other amenities, the yearly exodus to Simla is necessary. The answer is that attempts to extend the period of cold weather occupation of New Delhi have already been made without success, and that whenever the question has been debated in the India Legislature a decided vote against hot weather occupation has been given. Circumstances are against summering in Delhi. The Mogul Emperors used to journey in their slow, old manner all the way to Kashmir rather than bear the heat of the Delhi summer, and the main conditions of the case have not materially altered since then, nor is the present generation better able to bear what compelled the older generation to flee. Simla is not in the practical sense far from Delhi, for by taking train at Delhi at 9.30 p.m. you may be in Simla by next morning at 10.

The chief advocates or abandoning the Simla exodus have been Indians from the maritime provinces and British people whose duty compels them to spend their summers in Delhi. Elected members of the Legislative Assembly representing the inland provinces almost solidly vote for Simla in the summer.

When Lord Hardinge and his colleagues planned the transfer of the capital from Calcutta, they calculated upon a stay of seven months in Delhi. This is the period of occupation which they laid down in their critical dispatch to the Secretary of State upon the subject. Some people argue that the suggestion should be regarded as a pledge which ought to be honoured; but they forget that the calculation was made after only a comparatively slight inquiry owing to the need for secrecy. Two hard facts need emphasizing. One is that with the onset of the hot weather in Delhi the human brain will not work nearly so well as in the cooler climate of Simla. Consequently, both efficiency and economy prescribe the continuance of the summer retreat. Secondly, people having business with the Government of India will not come to attend to it in Delhi after it has become hot if they can avoid doing so.

The Government last year extended the Delhi period to six months by remaining till mid-April. This year the long session kept the Government and Secretariat equally late. The opening of the session this winter has been fixed for January 20, or nearly a fortnight earlier than usual, and it is expected that the Government will not [illegible] March.

THE SILVER SCREEN.

"THE WILD PARTY."

"When better whoopee is made, Clara will make it," might well have been the motto of the Paramount sponsors of Miss Bow's latest confection of the screen, "The Wild Party," which opened at the Central Theatre last night.

The story of "The Wild Party" from one written by Warner Fabian, calls for youth's maddest flaunting of the conventions, and the action reaches many a crescendo pitch as Clara and her mates have their wild, unbridled flings in night clubs and at week-end parties.

There is an undercurrent of true romance throughout the play which bubbles to the surface triumphantly in the last few scenes.

Fredric March furnishes the heroic male appeal in the play, carrying off the rôle of a college professor with a delightful intelligence. He is dark-haired and handsome, and his directors did well to choose him as the lover.

A dazzling group of "baby stars" supports the inimitable Clara, furnishing an "It" complement that rounds out the film in the full curves of wholesome feminity.

"WITH BYRD AT THE SOUTH POLE."

The story of Admiral Byrd's adventures in the uncharted, icebound regions of the Antarctic has been thrillingly dramatized on the audible screen by Paramount. In order to film Byrd's outstanding modern adventure, Paramount, two years ago, commissioned two well-known cameramen to go along as members of Byrd's party and photograph this intimate story of man's courageous fight against the almost insurmountable forces of nature.

The result of Paramount's efforts is the moving picture, "With Byrd at the South Pole," a vivid story, depicting in dramatic terms the adventure, the heroism, the tragedy and the humour of men who face death 2,300 miles beyond the last outpost of civilization.

There are many intimate touches that make "With Byrd at the South Pole" entertaining. Much of the humour, and there is a goodly portion of foolery, is supplied by the dignified, portly, white-vested Penguins who, knowing no fear, hobnob with the explorers. Only Igloo, Byrd's pet fox terrier, feels the Penguins are taking too much for granted and takes it upon herself to teach one of them a lasting lesson. But the Penguin proves to be a good fighter and more than holds his own with the impetuous Igloo. Attention too is focused on the Huskie dogs who draw the sleds over hundreds of ice-covered miles. In particular there is the tragedy of Spy, the team leader, who, lame and broken, persists in taking his place at the head of the team. He is unable to go on and Gould, the scientist in command of this trail-breaking outfit, is forced to put Spy out of his misery.

"With Byrd at the South Pole" will be presented at the Central Theatre beginning Saturday.

"THE LADY OF SCANDAL."

Actors have to qualify as quick change artists and not be noisy about it either in these days of talking pictures. Cyril Chadwick had to change from sports clothes to evening dress on a rug behind a door, doing it in time to make his entrance on a given cue and make the change while a talking scene was going on.

This odd trick was done in the filming of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Lady of Scandal," all-talking adaptation of Frederick Lonsdale's noted stage success, "The High Road."

The action called for Shadwick leaving the room in sports togs and re-entering during the same scene in evening dress. The scene was continuous so could not be broken and there was no time to hurry him to his dressing room for he had to enter on cue and not slow up the action.

So while the camera was turning on Ruth Chatterton, Basil Rathbone, Ralph Forbes and Nance O'Neil, Chadwick made his change silently just outside the door and made such perfect time that he had six seconds to spare before his cue.

The new picture, which will be shown on Wednesday at the Queen's Theatre, is a smart comedy of English society. Others in the cast are Frederick Kerr, Herbert Bunston, Cyril Chadwick, Effie Ellsler, Robert Holder, Moon Carroll, Kenyon and Edgar Norton.

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Soul and body" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 23.

The Golden Text was: "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light." (Matt. 6: 22.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your callings; one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." (Eph. 4; 4, 6.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Identity is the reflection of Spirit, the reflection in multifarious forms of the Living Principle, Love. Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized but not in matter. Soul can never reflect anything inferior to Spirit." (p. 477.)

SHANGHAI STABBING AFFRAY.

POLICE OFFICER INJURED.

SHIP'S ENGINEER CHARGED.

A sequel to the stabbing affray in Broadway, Shanghai in which Sergeant G. Jenkinson, of the Municipal Police, was wounded in the back was heard in the U.S. Court for China last Monday, before Commissioner Alexander Krisel, when John Dudko, deck engineer of the steamer Iowa, was charged with having been drunk and disorderly in the bar of the Savoy Hotel.

He pleaded guilty.

The U.S. District Attorney (Dr. G. Sellet) outlining the case for the prosecution, said that Sergeant Jenkinson and a companion named Molloy were in the bar of the hotel in the early hours of that morning, standing near Dudko and a shipmate of Dudko's named Syvanen. An argument arose between Molloy and Syvanen. Blows were exchanged. Subsequently Sergeant Jenkinson was found to be bleeding from a knife wound about two inches from the spine. Dudko was not to be found and there was evidence to show that he had stabbed Sergeant Jenkinson. Part of that evidence was in the form of a confession made to the second-assistant engineer of the steamer that he had "stabbed a man at the Savoy Hotel." He had evaded arrest until four hours before the court opened.

"Stabbed An Englishman."

Giving evidence, Silvio C. Leonardine, second assistant engineer of steamer Iowa, said that he had met Dudko outside the International Bar on that day. Dudko had given as his reason for not returning to the ship the fact that he had stabbed "an Englishman" in the bar of the Savoy Hotel. He explained that the "Englishman" had been "tipping" his nose. He appeared to be in a dazed condition.

Thomas Rice, assistant manager of the Savoy Hotel, said that he had seen the fight between Molloy and Syvanen which preceded the discovery that Sergeant Jenkinson had been stabbed. Dudko was then "not what you would call drunk, but not sober by any means. He had had a few drinks, but not too many. He was in a fairly good condition." He knew Molloy as being an employee of the British Cigarette Co. He could not say if Dudko ran out of the bar before or after the discovery of the injury to Sergeant Jenkinson. Dudko had been with Syvanen until he started to fight with Sergeant Jenkinson.

John Rieger, manager of the Savoy Hotel, said that he had seen a middle-sized man dash out of the bar shortly before it was discovered that Sergeant Jenkinson had been stabbed. He could not identify the man.

"One Bad Hombre."

John T. V. Syvanen said that he was a shipmate of Dudko's and had joined him in the bar of the Savoy Hotel after midnight on the previous day. He had seen two or three men milling around Dudko and he had gone to his assistance. He had been promptly hit in the eye by Molloy. He had then taken off his coat to fight; he could not say if he had also taken off his vest. He had not seen Dudko stab anyone.

The last witness, Wolfgang Kratt, also of the Iowa, said that he had seen Dudko drinking in the bar of the Savoy Hotel shortly before Sergeant Jenkinson was stabbed. Dudko had borrowed $5 and said that he would "open him up." Before they separated Dudko had described himself as "one bad hombre." The word "cut" was also used by Dudko in connection with his threat to "open him up."

The proceedings were then adjourned until Saturday for the production of evidence by Molloy and Sergeant Jenkinson. As matters stood before the adjournment, the Commissioner said, there was very little to connect Dudko with the stabbing and he thought that any such evidence could have been made immediately available. The District Attorney, replying, said that the case had been brought into court with undue haste, due to the leaving port on Tuesday.

NOLO MATRICULARI.

[A porcupine has been seen on High West. And a University Professor complains that he has lost one.]

When on the Shatin hillsides I pursued the simple life,
Untrammelled by a family, unhindered by a wife,
I led a gay existence. Such a lightsome lot was mine,
The Hystericidae could show no happier porcupine.

Regarding commissariat, the labour was most light,
I simply went and foraged in the village fields at night.
But then, alas! they watched for me, and caught me; and I knew
I was billed as star performer in the village evening stew.

Then, luckily, there came along a professorial man
By name—well, never mind his name, pronounce it if you can:
Who purchased me and took me willy-nilly right along
To share with him his diggings in a place they call Hong Kong.

Now scientific persons of whatever high degree
Are not congenial landlords for a porcupine like me.
I determined rustication was indubitably best,
So I shook him and proceeded to the pastures of High West.

He had mentioned other porcupines residing at Shek O,
Which I had a mind to visit. But a still small voice said "No!"
A homely sort of chap the sweets of freedom should imbibe
Alone, unintermingled with the taipans of his tribe.

I have carefully considered ev'ry aspect of the case,
And have come to the conclusion that High West is just the place.
I shall have to chance the standard of the Bord'rers' musketry,
But I'd rather get a bullet than a Varsity Degree.

WEDDING BELLS.

PRETTY CEREMONY AT THE CATHEDRAL.

JEFFRIES—BURRAGE.

There was a large gathering of friends of both bride and bridegroom at St. John's Cathedral on Saturday when Miss Kathleen Margaret Burrage was married to Mr. Arthur Ernest Edward Jeffries. The Very Rev. Dean Swann officiated.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. Charles Burrage of Devonport, England, was given away by Mr. W. J. Shenton. She looked extremely charming in an ankle-length silk lace and net embroidered dress with a veil of tulle and a headdress of orange blossom. She carried a bouquet of white roses and maidenhair ferns.

Miss Patricia Hynes was the bridesmaid and she wore an ankle-length dress of pink georgette, with shoes to match. Her headdress was of silver leaves, and she carried a sheaf of pink gladioli with ferns. Master Michael Hynes, who acted as page boy, wore a suit of white velvet and crepe-de-chine.

Mrs. C. Dudley Bartlett was matron of honour. She wore a frock of printed crepe-de-chine with contee and hat to match. Mr. Ian Lenox was the "best Man."

Mr. C. Dudley Bartlett was the organist, and Messrs. R. True and R. Woods acted as ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hynes at which the health of the bride and bridegroom was toasted. The couple left later for Repulse Bay for their honeymoon, the bride's going away dress being an ensemble in green speckled tweed finished with grey fur collar and pearl-grey crepe-de-chine blouse.

A PRIEST'S DAGGER.

WEAPON TO COMBAT EVIL SPIRITS.

When charged before Mr. R. E. Lindsell at the Central Magistracy on Saturday with possession of a bayonet without a permit, a Chinese intimated that, in his calling as a priest, he had to use the weapon to combat evil spirits.

Magistrate: But it is stated on the charge sheet that you are a fisherman.

Defendant: I am both a priest and a fisherman. I use the dagger to stab or cut the devil.

Magistrate: Oh, I see. (To Sub-Inspector P. Murphy): Do you think he is a wizard who tries to drive out spirits?

Sub-Inspector Murphy: I can't say. I consider the bayonet to be an unlawful weapon.

A piece of red cloth which was tied to the handle of the bayonet was produced, and it was suggested that it might be used in connection with ceremonies conducted by the defendant.

In discharging the defendant with a caution, his Worship humorously remarked that it seemed a pity to deprive the man of a weapon that was doing so much good, but the law did not allow anyone to possess a bayonet without a permit.

His Worship (to defendant): Perhaps if you had a wooden one made, it would be as effective.

SAD MOTOR-BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

PORTUGUESE SUSTAINS FATAL INJURIES.

A fatal motor accident, involving the death of Mr. R. Rozario, a Portuguese youth, occurred in the New Territories early yesterday.

Only meagre details of the unfortunate mishap were obtainable last night, and from these it appears that the first news of the accident was made known to the Water Police Station by Mr. Sanderson, of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Company. The report stated that a Portuguese lad was badly injured as a result of a motor accident near the Fanling Railway Station, and further added that the patient was being attended to by a doctor who was present on the scene.

A motor ambulance was at once despatched together with several Traffic officers. Subsequently, it was found that the accident had occurred somewhere near the Wo Hop Shek Village.

It is believed that Mr. R. Rozario was attached to the office staff of the Netherlands India Bank. His residence was given as "Fairview Building," Kowloon. The deceased was only 20 years of age.

From information gathered from other sources, it appears that Mr. R. Rozario was driving along the Castle Peak Road at 11.30 a.m. yesterday. He was riding a Harley-Davidson motor-cycle, with another Portuguese gentleman riding on the pillion seat. Whilst taking a corner the machine skidded and both riders were thrown off the motor-cycle. Mr. Rozario sustained severe head injuries and succumbed shortly afterwards.

The pillion rider escaped with slight injuries.

KOWLOON BOY INJURED.

KNOCKED DOWN BY MOTOR CAR.

An unfortunate motor accident resulting in serious injuries to Master Murray Nish, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Nish, occurred in Kowloon on Friday.

The mishap happened at tiffin time when the boy was coming home from school. He was knocked down by a motor-car and sustained severe injuries. He was rushed to Kowloon Hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from concussion.

When the parents were first summoned, the patient was in a serious condition but friends of Mr. and Mrs. Nish will be pleased to learn that since then he has been making favourable progress.

Imports of bricks and tiles dropped heavily to 1,743,378 pieces valued at $30,005, while cement increased from 141,063 piculs ($154,813) to 209,091 piculs ($245,094). Of the cement imports North China accounted for 42,188 piculs ($45,105), Japan 151,386 piculs ($180,149) and French Indo-China 15,400 piculs ($19,250). Cement exports increased from 136,853 piculs ($198,571) to 201,776 piculs ($293,146), South China taking 149,527 piculs ($199,058), Straits Settlements 20,700 piculs ($41,850) and India 16,476 piculs ($27,350).

Hardwood imports fell from 170,057 cubic feet ($168,661) to 104,407 cubic feet ($133,167), while exports remained steady at 90,317 cubic feet ($109,502). Teakwood imports increased slightly to 58,575 cubic feet ($125,594), exports falling from 42,321 cubic feet ($72,852) to 36,596 cubic feet ($69,553). American Pine imports increased from value fell from $19,216, to $10,077.

Chemicals and Drugs.

Imports reached the highest level for the year at $648,129 as compared with $513,928 in September, the share of the United Kingdom falling, however, from $201,312 to $188,581. On the other hand, imports from Germany increased from $112,725 in September to $273,552, Japan falling $30,000 to $58,949, and U.S.A. increasing by $5,000 to $35,058. Pharmaceutical products showed a big increase from $156,365 to $236,339, the highest level for the year. The chief import under this head was patent and proprietary medicines, $57,321 coming from United Kingdom and $122,732 from Germany.

Exports of chemicals and drugs also reached a new high level for the year, totalling $357,588 as compared with $248,333 in September; the previous highest being $275,510 in July. Soda ash exports increased from $65,860 to $82,797, and Pharmaceutical products advanced from $37,454 to $81,549. Of the total exports South China took $154,416 and North China $59,095.

Chinese Medicines.

Imports values under this head continued to soar a new high figure of $2,711,253 being recorded as compared with the previous highest figure of $2,035,019 in September and a low of $1,492,848 in July. Unenumerated items again accounted for the greater portion of the total ($1,734,984). The chief sources of supply were North China ($1,763,419), United States of America ($236,207), South China ($198,617) and French Indo-China ($194,565). Small consignments were also received from Holland, Germany, France, and British East Africa.

Exports increased in sympathy with imports, totalling $1,463,729 as compared with $1,378,781; the Straits Settlements being the best customer, taking $247,033.

Dyeing and Tanning Materials.

Imports declined slightly to $727,017 but exports jumped nearly $300,000 to $690,643. Imports of aniline dyes (not including indigo) showed a slight decline to $202,837, the German share of the trade increasing, however, from $176,000 to $184,337. Artificial indigo advanced from $255,000 to $266,991, the United Kingdom share of the trade increasing from 75 piculs ($3,147) to 262 piculs ($11,111). Germany accounted for 1,274 piculs ($205,140) as compared with 1,438 piculs ($190,916) in September.

Exports of aniline dyes increased from $85,670 to $199,929, practically all going to China, while artificial indigo exports advanced from 855 piculs ($80,111) to 1,557 piculs ($225,671); China and French Indo-China each taking over $100,000.

Foodstuffs and Provisions.

Total imports declined from $18,637,990 to $16,289,069, while exports reached the highest level since May at $16,505,798 the September figure being $14,525,138.

The group figures of imports and exports were:—Beans $570,061 imports and $533,711 exports; Fish and fishery products $2,016,051 and $2,031,364; Flours $1,714,634 and $1,865,686; Grains $3,720,598 and $2,605,995; Meats $479,169 and $40,681; Sugar $3,966,144 and $5,209,102; Fresh vegetables and Fruits $700,472 and $352,224; Preserved vegetables $330,434 and $336,175; Miscellaneous $2,774,406 and $3,250,770.

Imports of wheat flour declined from 100,036 piculs ($972,971) to 97,845 piculs ($886,305), the United States share falling from 70,688 piculs ($750,204) to 73,207 piculs ($673,235). Japanese imports increased from 910 piculs ($7,800) to 2,206 piculs ($18,560), while Canadian imports, although increasing in quantity from 19,066 to 20,178 piculs, fell from $187,240 to $171,100 in value. The quantity from Australia at the enhanced price of $23,400.

THE KAILAN MINING ADMINISTRATION,
Head Office:—TIENTSIN.

DODWELL & CO., LTD., Agents, Hong Kong.

Imports of white rice (China) fell completely away to four piculs valued at $49. White rice (Indo-China) increased from 95,167 piculs ($848,466) to 101,311 piculs ($881,015). White Siam fell from 193,954 piculs ($1,730,435) to 164,801 piculs ($1,291,415); White Saigon also registering a decline from 171,275 piculs ($1,621,393) to 129,342 piculs ($1,134,328). Rangoon rice entered in increased quantities after the drop in September, 67,208 piculs ($308,875) being imported as compared with 43,884 ($222,530).

Imports of the cheaper grades of Rangoon rice are a direct reflection of the increased cost of living in South China, brought about by the decreased purchasing power of silver, and pending the arrival of China's second crop.

Imports of beer recorded a big rise from 6,003 lbs. valued at $3,169 to 128,042 lbs. ($46,221).

Game and poultry increased in number from 356,136 to 438,344 but the value fell $3,000 to $361,024.

Unrefined brown sugar fell from 153,230 piculs ($1,106,945) to 133,934 piculs ($895,789), refined white also declining from 347,693 piculs ($2,579,757) to 234,404 piculs ($1,693,418). Refined brown imports recorded an increase from 173,101 piculs valued at $1,093,594 to 208,034 piculs ($1,372,173). With the exception of small consignments from Japan and the Straits all sugar came from the Netherlands East Indies.

Of the total imports of foodstuffs $4,126,246 came from the Netherlands East Indies, $2,707,255 from French Indo-China and $1,758,573 from Siam.

South China was the best customer with $4,775,243 as compared with $4,290,058, North China taking $4,086,252 and French Indo-China $1,597,097.

Fuels.

Fuel imports declined slightly to $1,068,897, practically all for local consumption. Charcoal increased from 17,472 piculs ($43,318) to 24,326 piculs ($59,074), while bituminous coal declined slightly to 62,308 tons ($837,807). Firewood advanced to 187,973 piculs ($165,816).

Hardware.

Total imports were $390,214 as compared with $378,732, and exports $274,213 as against $241,505, unenumerated items accounting for $154,946 $112,970, respectively.

Intoxicating Liquors.

Imports advanced $4,000 over September, reaching $339,281, while exports reached the highest level for the year at $187,271. Malt liquors declined sharply from 42,107 gallons ($124,498) to 30,977 gallons ($85,933). Brandy, gin, rum and whisky advanced from 5,977 gallons ($102,870) to 8,420 gallons ($107,595), native liquors increasing slightly to 41,009 gallons ($78,494).

Of the total $114,006 came from United Kingdom and $61,383 from France. Spirits ($37,414) and native liquors ($60,719) were the chief items of export, Middle China taking $44,596 and British North Borneo $15,563.

Machinery and Engines.

From a low level of $171,799 in August, imports rapidly advanced to $360,597, the highest figure for the year; exports rising $5,000 to $90,430. A big rise was recorded in imports of electrical machinery, the figure increasing from $86,095 to $166,139. Industrial machinery fell $20,000 to $18,238, while unenumerated machinery jumped from $63,000 to $108,000. Of the total imports $205,320 came from United Kingdom as compared with $104,078 in September.

Manures.

From $2,450,050 in May, imports steadily fell to $1,137,125 in September, but an upward tendency was noted in October, the figure advancing to $1,470,753. On the other hand, exports declined $200,000 to $1,670,060. Sulphate of ammonia imports increased from 155,002 piculs ($1,123,746) to 189,606 piculs ($1,455,414), the British share being 83,537 piculs ($705,292), and the German 96,020 piculs ($676,040); Great Britain showing a slight decline while the German figure advanced $400,000. Practically all the exports went to Middle and South

Metals.

Although imports showed a slight decrease as compared with September, the figure of $2,691,210 was well above the average since April, and the same applied to the export figure of $2,050,127.

Iron and steel bars showed a remarked increase from 41,307 piculs valued at $267,941 to 93,727 piculs ($619,148), the British share increasing slightly in value at $60,276, and the Belgian share advancing from 31,504 piculs (189,641) to 76,892 piculs ($469,437). Wire nails advanced from 2,962 piculs ($32,248) to 4,536 piculs (43,518); the British share increasing from a negligible figure in September to 990 piculs ($9,224).

Tin plates fell heavily from 29,373 piculs ($600,000) to 13,392 piculs ($275,426), but the United Kingdom share of the trade increased slightly in quantity and value. The United States share dropped from the high figure of 16,091 piculs ($335,356), to 150 piculs valued at $2,200.

Tin slabs and ingots declined $100,000 to 7,458 piculs ($815,308), the bulk of the import, 4,973 piculs ($528,758), coming from French Indo-China, and 2,079 piculs ($241,847) from South China. Only 406 piculs valued at $44,703 arrived from the Straits, but it should be noted that a big unrecorded import is increased from the Straits for transhipment to U.S.A.

The British share of the whole metal trade increased by $10,000 to $469,992, while the Belgian figure recorded a rise of nearly $400,000 to $675,075.

The bulk of the exports went to China, the Japanese figure dropping over $100,000 to $177,023. Exports to U.S.A. dropped heavily from $336,488 to $250,730.

Minerals and Ores.

After averaging about $40,000 for five months, imports suddenly jumped to $255,231 in September and a further huge increase was recorded in October, when the figure rose to $428,088, owing to heavy arrivals of wolframite from South and Middle China. Exports rose in sympathy from $46,208 to $152,936, U.S.A. taking 839 piculs ($43,943) of wolframite.

Nuts and Seeds.

This group declined $300,000 to $714,098, while exports fell slightly to $585,211. Pepper imports fell away from 6,192 piculs ($334,711) to 4,557 piculs ($246,457).

Oils and Fats.

Imports declined from $2,857,567 to $1,475,910, mainly due to decreases in petrol and kerosene. Exports, on the other hand, advanced $500,000 to $2,326,603.

The Netherlands East Indies accounted for 211,268 gallons of import petrol at a declared wholesale value of one dollar a gallon, this representing the only arrival during the month.

Kerosene imports dropped from 2,354,338 gallons, at a declared value at $1,225,783, to 575,614 gallons valued at $289,325.

South China took 195,642 gallons of petrol ($212,051), while Middle China accounted for 509,616 gallons of kerosene ($214,907).

Paints.

After a steady decline from $177,640 in May to $121,909 in September imports of paints recovered to $177,495, while exports reached the highest level for the year at $288,017 as compared with the previous figure of $165,000 in May. Both the British and German shares of the imports showed increases.

Piece Goods and Textiles.

Although the total imports showed a decline of almost $2,000,000 to $11,761,170 as compared with September, the figure was well above the average for the year. Clearances were good, reaching the exceptionally high figure of $3,933,613, as compared with the previous highest of $3,945,976 in September.

The British share of the imports fell from $3,159,340 to $2,174,974, while the Japanese share likewise fell from $3,088,911 to $3,386,093. The Italian figure increased from $291,673 to $750,515 while imports from Germany and North China declined heavily.

CANADA'S TRADE MISSION VISITS CANTON.

OPPORTUNITY FOR ADVANTAGEOUS TRADE RELATIONS.

CHINA'S PLACE AS CUSTOMER OF CANADA.

CANTON, November 23.

The Canadian Trade Delegation to Japan, China and Hong Kong, headed by Mr. John Imrie, Managing Director of the Admonton Journal and Vice-President of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, arrived in Canton yesterday morning by the s.s. Taishan.

At the wharf they were greeted by a group of representatives of the Canton Municipal Government and the Canton General Chamber of Commerce, including Mr. Leung Tsie Wai, secretary of Mayor Lin Wan Koi, and Dr. C. H. Chang, President of Canton Municipal Bank.

Upon landing the members of the Canadian Trade Mission, 22 in number, were escorted to the Victoria Hotel at Shameen, where they were entertained to breakfast.

At 9 o'clock Mr. John Imrie received the local newspaper reporters.

At 10 o'clock the members of the Delegation were taken to visit Lingnan University, the Mayor of Canton, and the Commissioner of Reconstruction of Kwangtung, Mr. Tang Yin Wa. At one o'clock in the afternoon they returned to Shameen for luncheon, as the guests of the British Consul-General.

In the evening they were the guests of honour at a banquet given by Mayor Lin Wan Koi.

MAYOR OF CANTON'S FELICITOUS WELCOME.

The Mayor delivered a speech welcoming the Canadian Trade Mission to Canton.

Mr. John Imrie replied on behalf of the delegation, expressing his warm appreciation of the hospitality of Canton and setting forth the purpose of the mission to China. His speech, in part, was as follows:—

The Honourable the Minister of Trade and Commerce also sent his cordial greetings and as these refer particularly to China, I shall read his message: "As Minister of Trade and Commerce I have the profound conviction that the expansion of the future trade of the world will be in the Pacific, and that China will emerge from her present economic and social turmoil and play an important rôle in this expansion. I have the further conviction that the economic stability of China and other countries of the Continent of Asia is a major economic problem facing the world, and must ere long command the attention of the rest of the civilized world. If your journey as business men to those countries of an older civilization than our own will contribute to hasten the day when this will be brought about, it will contribute in the most valuable way to the promotion of their prosperity and the prosperity of Canada and the remainder of the world." I bring to you also the felicitation of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, which comprises Chambers of Commerce in 205 Canadian cities and towns, and of which I have the honour to be the Vice-President. Canada has been watching with very keen interest the developents of recent years in China. At first our thoughts were confused and our vision was obscured by the number and variety of political and military developments here. But in recent months, as I said at the dinner last night, we have come to regard these not as signs of weakness and disintegration but rather as symbols of growth and expansion, a forerunner of a great and varied transformation. It is particularly pleasing to our Delegation that our arrival in China should have been at a time when discussions are taking place in Nanking that may have a great and far-reaching influence not only on internal conditions in China, but on the peace and trade of the world. To a country that has a background of five thousand years' history, philosophy, and culture, a few decades, or even half a century, may be taken as but a passing phase. When stability has been re-established in politics, in currency, and in commerce, China must surely enter upon a large and varied economic expansion to which the developments of recent years are but a prelude. Canada foresees in that expansion an opportunity for mutually advantageous trade relations. That is one reason for this preliminary reconnaissance visit of our party. It is our hope that it will be followed by another Mission that will have available sufficient time to visit your various centres of trade and commerce, and for more extended personal intercourse with your business and financial leaders. Certainly what we have seen and heard during even these two days will justify very strong recommendations in that direction to the Government of Canada and the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. Already, and notwithstanding the disturbed conditions of recent years, there has been a large expansion in Canada's trade with China. This has grown from a maximum of Tls. 750,000 in a period prior to 1914 to an annual average of Tls. 60,000,000. China now stands in eighth place amongst the customer nations of Canada, having jumped in eight years from twenty-third place. But it is of Canada that you would like me to speak to-night. It is well that my nation should know more about China, and it may not be amiss that even this great nation, with all its own history and traditions, should know more about Canada. Therefore my major message to-night is of a young and virile nation which, after several successive periods of development, suddenly entered six years ago upon an era of expansion so vast in area covered, so varied in character of activity, and so pregnant in possibility for co-operative action with other nations as to be almost, if not altgether, without national precedent. Canada's recorded history goes back only 533 years. There was no settlement in Canada by the races who now possess it until 327 years ago. Even then, and for a long time thereafter, the only settlement was in a small area adjoining the Atlantic Ocean on a narrow strip along the River St. Lwrence. It was not until 140 years ago that the first Canadian crossed Canada to the West and brought back word that her boundaries extended through to the Pacific. As late as 60 years ago there were less than 100,000 people in the Western half of what is now Canada. My country entered upon her first large development only 25 years ago. The chief characteristic of the movement which began then was the settling of the large wheat growng areas of Western Canada.

Following the World War came a period of reconstruction. Then in 1924 there commenced the greatest and most varied expansion in Canada's history. This has carried Canada to a position of fifth place among the nations of the world, alike in imports, exports and aggregate trade. On a per capita basis our new position is even higher—fifth in imports, third in exports, fourth in aggregate trade, and second in favourable trade balance. Our foreign trade in 1929 was valued at 7 billion 500 million taels as compared with slightly more than one billion in 1900. The extent, and particularly the character, of recent economic development in Canada has greatly enlarged our capacity for mutually beneficial trade with other countries—that is my reason for giving some details of it to-night.

Canada's Basic Industry.

Agriculture is still Canada's basic industry and the source of our largest group of exports. During the fiscal year of 1929 we sold to other countries agricultural, vegetable and animal products to a value of 2 billion 400 million taels. But the point of great significance is that our area of improved land in 1929 was only one-fifth of what we now know to be our total area of land suitable for agriculture. Canada's forests come next to her agricultural land as a primary source of new wealth and trade. In the utilization of these, there has been a striking development in recent years. In 1929, Canada took from the United States the lead among the nations of the world as a newsprint producer. By 1929 Canada's production of newsprint was almost double that of the United States and fully double her own production in 1924. Other large increases have been made in the production of wood pulp, lumber and wood products generally. But here again the significant thing is the extent of untouched reserves. More than one-third of Canada's vast area is now known to be covered by forests. But Canada's most spectacular development of recent years has been in mining. Each year has seen a new record in value of output. Last year this exceeded 900,000,000 taels. Of much greater importance has been the discovery of new mineral areas that have not yet been brought into production. Aviation has opened up almost overnight vast stretches of mineralized land that previously was inaccessible. Thousands of engineers and prospectors have been carried 1,000, 1,500 and even 2,000 miles from the end of railroads, and the evidences of new mineral wealth which they have brought back have been startling in their magnitude. That portion of the Pre-Cambrian mineral shield that lies in the United States has contributed tremendously to the industrial development of that country. It is now known definitely that 85 per cent. of the Pre-Cambrian shield is in North America, and that of this Canada has 95 per cent., or 19 times the area that is in the United States. Only a small fraction of Canada's portion of this great interesting mineral belt has been prospected; a still smaller fraction developed. Yet already Canada stands first among the nations of the world as a mineral producer in nickel and asbestos, second in cobalt, third in gold and silver, fourth in lead and copper and sixth in zinc. Hydro-electric power is another natural resource that Canada has developed greatly since 1925. To-day Canada is surpassed only by the United States in total turbine horse-power installation. On a per capita basis Canada has five times the installation of the United States. And our total actual installation of 5½ million horse-power is only one-eighth of our known capacity. Canada's fishing grounds are another of her great natural assets. They are by far the most extensive in the Western Hemisphere—perhaps in the whole world. The comparative coldness of their waters provides an advantage in the high quality of their fish product. In 1929 our fisheries production had a value of 165,000,000 taels. That is capable of large expansion as new markets are developed. In our new North are thousands of virgin lakes literally teeming with fish. In Hudson's Bay we have an inland sea larger than the Mediterranean whose fish have yet to encounter the hook or net of the fisherman.

Canada's Manufacturing Industry.

Concurrent with this development of Canada's primary industries we have had a large expansion in manufacturing. Our manufacturing industry to-day represents an investment of 15 billion taels and its annual output is 10 billion taels. Its products are in great variety, and it has been a particular pleasure to our delegation to see many of them advertised by name in the newspapers of Shanghai.

Forgive me if in all of this I have seemed to stress my own country and its development. I have done so deliberately as an aid in interesting Canada to China and also because the character of that development and of the natural resources on which it is based are such as to enable us to aid this and other countries in their own respective developments.

Interpendence of China and Canada.

It is not as representing a trade competitor that our delegation has come to China. We represent rather a nation that from a trade standpoint is a complement of her own. To a unique degree our natural resources and our products are different from those of China. In many respects they are such as China is using and will continue to use to her own advantage. Thus Canada's main exports are foodstuff; minerals, forest products and manufactured goods. For each of these China has requirements over and above her own domestic production. Canada in turn is lacking in certain commodities that are indigenous to China. Thus our two countries are complementary rather than competitive. Our Trade Delegation is studying the possibilities of both import and export trade. This growing interdependence of nations from an economic standpoint must surely aid in providing added security for peace. International disputes would have this genesis in lack of understanding. To know fully is to understand fully. Expanding international trade involves expanding personal contacts, and these in turn a large measure of international understanding and confidence.

The delegation returned to Hong Kong by this afternoon's train.

Mr. Imrie Interviewed.

In an interview with the representative of the Hong Kong Daily Press at the Victoria Hotel this morning, Mr. John Imrie said:—It is a desire for closer and more intimate relations and contacts with the business interests of China that has brought this delegation across the Pacific from Canada. Our coming is prompted by friendliness and good will and the hope that it is primarily a reconnaissance party to survey in a preliminary way the opportunities for reciprocal trade. It is our hope and expectation that this first goodwill mission will be but a forerunner of another that will have sufficient time available to visit the various centres of trade and commerce in this great Republic and to have more extended intercourse with its outstanding business men, all with a view to a more thorough investigation of the bi-lateral trade possibilities of your old and our young nation. The conviction is growing in Canada that recent developments in China are symbols of growth and expansion. They represent a passing phase which must surely be followed by the unification of this great Republic and the utilization of its vast resources in enlarged trade, both within itself and with other nations. Canada is a near neighbour of China, separated only by an ocean which man has converted from a physical barrier into sea lanes of ever widening commerce and communication. Although lacking the rich history and maturity of China Canada has displayed recently a capacity for vigorous growth and economic expansion. Since 1913, our exports have increased three-fold and our imports have been doubled. To-day Canada stands fifth among the nations of the world, alike in export, import and aggregate trade. China and Canada are in many respects trade complements of each other. Each is growing or manufacturing goods which the other lacks. Canada is in a position to supply many commodities that China will need in her internal development of agriculture, transportation and industry, and, in turn will have need of much that China is producing or will produce in the new economic era on whose threshold she now stands. Therefore, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, which represents chambers of commerce in 205 cities and towns in Canada, and of which I have the honour to be vice-president, has sent this trade mission to China. It has a fourfold purpose, viz., to reflect the goodwill and friendliness of Canada's business interests; to acquire knowledge of trade conditions and trade requirements; to establish personal contacts; and to promote mutual understanding with a view to the further expansion of bi-lateral trade on a mutually beneficial basis.

Included in our party are representatives of three of the leading Canadian banks; two managing directors of daily newspapers; five representatives of lumbering and manufacturing interests; a member of the legal profession who is also on several business directorates; two technical engineers; a financier; a representative of the import trade; a representative of our transportation system; the Vice-President and the Secretary of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. Our delegation is looking forward with great pleasure to our sojourn in China, and sincerely hopes that our visit will prove of mutual benefit.

Tour of Canton's Places of Interest.

This morning (Sunday) the members of the Canadian Trade Mission were taken to places of interest in Canton, including the Five-Storey Pagoda on the Hill of the Goddess of Mercy, the Sun Yat Sen Memorial Building and Monument, Yellow Flower Hill, where the remains of the 72 national heroes repose, and the Beggars' University in the eastern suburb of the city. At noon they were the guests of honour at a luncheon given by the Canton General Chamber of Commerce. The Chairman of the Chamber delivered a speech of welcome, of which the following is a free translation:—

Honourable members of the Canadian Trade Delegation to Japan, China and Hong Kong,—The Canton General Chamber of Commerce wishes to extend to you to-day on your visit here its greetings and salutations. You are most cordially welcome here. The merchants representing the various lines of trade in Canton, who are gathered here, look upon this occasion as a happy augury in trade and other relations between China and Canada. They all enjoy your presence here. Canton is the principal commercial centre of South China, inasmuch as it was the first port in China opened to foreign trade. Because of its proximity to Hong Kong, it is but natural that the merchants here should be in close and cordial contact with British merchants. Canada is quite far from Canton, yet in spite of this long distance, you members of the Canadian Trade Mission have come to China to investigate the trade and economic conditions in the Far East. Such efforts on your part will no doubt have a great bearing on the future trade between China and the British Empire. The chief lines of goods which South China imports from Canada are flour, wool, copper and tin, electric wares, lumber, papers and printing materials. As all these are commodities essential to human life, the progress and development in trade which Canada has made along this direction may be seen. Yet in spite of all this, you are making further efforts at improvement, as indicated by your coming to the Far East. Such an ardent effort on your part to expand trade is

HONG KONG'S TRADE RETURNS.

Grey drills and ducks, etc., rose from 39,345 pieces valued at $303,633 to 45,898 pieces ($304,072), the British share declining heavily, while the Japanese share rose from 23,290 pieces ($178,697) to 33,859 pieces ($257,348).

White shirtings 40/43 yards falls heavily to 26,568 pieces ($238,736), the British share rising slightly to 2,971 pieces ($34,106) and the Japanese dropping heavily to 20,597 pieces ($204,630).

Grey and dyed cotton flannelettes showed a huge increase from a negligible figure to 656,032 yards valued at $140,476, dyed Italians dropping slightly to 867,647 yards ($323,242); Japan accounting for the major portion of these items.

Cotton blankets fell by about one-third to 58,386 pieces ($118,370), while wool and union blankets likewise fell heavily to 89,029 pieces ($171,342).

Wool and union cashmeres increased from 82,814 yards ($254,344) to 162,579 yards ($399,637). Plain, printed and stripped meltons recorded a big increase from 121,059 yards ($172,729) to 285,054 yards ($460,490); the British share amounting to 3,666 yards as against a nil return in September. The major portion came from Germany and Italy, both of which countries considerably improved their position.

Suitings and tweeds advanced slightly to 155,225 yards ($516,060), while woollen overcoatings jumped from 26,541 yards ($87,945) to 126,245 yards ($300,001), United Kingdom and Italy improving their position at the expense of Germany, the Italian figure soaring to 115,896 yards ($257,318).

Silk piece goods were steady at 1,104 piculs ($1,169,632), raw silk imports rising slightly to $229,065.

Cotton yarn, up to and including single and double 40's count, registered a very heavy decline to 2,331,861 lbs. ($1,219,916), imports from North China falling from 3,463,900 lbs. to 2,077,607 lbs., and Japan from 762,000 lbs. to 161,329 lbs.

Woollen yarn appreciated slightly to 238,636 lbs. ($511,395), the British share rising in proportion to 135,527 lbs. (292,433).

South China took $2,683,214 of the exports and Middle China $1,125,519, French Indo-China accounting for $1,305,654 and Siam $909,835.

Tobacco.

Tobacco imports fell slightly to $760,350, while exports increased from $883,824 to $1,078,306, due to heavier shipments of cigarettes to China and native prepared tobacco to the Straits Settlements. Of the cigarette imports $218,437 came from United Kingdom, $64,747 from North China and $10,178 from U.S.A.

Treasure.

Treasure imports fell away to $705,410, by far the lowest total this year, while exports recorded a rise of $6,000,000 to $9,188,711, mainly due to the shipment of Chinese dollars and silver bars to South China.

Vehicles.

Imports steadily declined from $315,987 in August to $128,308, five motor cars to a value of $25,795 being imported as against 28 cars valued at $69,685. Two cars valued at $17,995 arrived from the United Kingdom and two valued at $5,800 from U.S.A., the solitary remaining car valued at $2,000 coming from Italy. Four lorries ($7,685) and ten lorry chassis ($15,605) entered.

Wearing Apparel.

Imports and exports registered new high levels for the year at $850,543 and $1,302,119, respectively, boots and shoes, overcoats and miscellaneous items recording increases. The bulk of the imports came from Japan ($219,060) and Italy ($178,757).

existing between any two countries, for which the respective Governments are largely responsible, may be fostered and augmented to no mean degree by the merchants of the two nations in commercial intercourse. The Canton General Chamber of Commerce representing the various merchants' guilds in the city is deeply desirous of seeing the trade between the British Empire and China developed in such a way as to be of mutual benefit to both parties. Réciprocity is what we want.

Because of the limited time at our disposal to-day, we are afraid that we have not been able to carry out our duties as hosts in our welcome to you. We all hope that you will correct any mistakes we may have inadvertantly committed. Let us all drink to the cordial re- [illegible] between Great Britain trade between Canada and China, and to the health of the members of the Canadian Trade Delegation.

THE CANADIAN TRADE MISSION.

THE Canadian Trade Mission to the Far East, which arrived in the Colony on Friday, after visits to Japan and Shanghai, returned here from Canton yesterday afternoon. These distinguished representatives of the Dominion are to stay here till Thursday, and during that time they will investigate, with a thoroughness characteristic of their nation, what Hong Kong stands for in the trade of South China. Now that there is a real possibility of peace in the Republic all the nations of the world will be seeking the markets of the Far East. Hong Kong is a free port, and all are welcome. It claims to be the sole deep-sea harbour with modern facilities in South China, and the entrepot from whence goods can be distributed along the great river system of Kwangtung and Kwangsi, and far into the interior. Here, under British administration, is the commercial meeting place of East and West, the sure base from which merchants can advance into the immense area of South China.

Hong Kong's link with Canada is a close one. The great liners of the Canadian Pacific S.S. Co. ply regularly between Hong Kong, and the prosperous and rapidly growing port of Vancouver conveying huge cargoes and vast numbers of passeners of all races. In the figures of the statistical branch of the Hong Kong Imports and Exports Department the value of the October imports from the British Empire is given as nine and a half million dollars. The United Kingdom, India and the Straits account for about eight millions, but a big proportion of the remainder is from Canada. Last year the value of the whole Sino-Canadian trade amounted to G.$10,500,000, but political peace in China should see a big rise in the Chinese imports from Canada which have only totalled $3,000,000 per annum for the last two years. There is room for development. China needs the oil and the manufactured goods of Canada while her own produce always finds its markets in the civilized countries of the world.

Canada is going ahead with amazing speed and sureness. Her agriculture and her industries are alike prosperous. Scientific survey and exploration are revealing more and more sources of mineral wealth. Her statesmen and magnates prophesy a development as rapid and as startling as that of the United States during the last thirty years. China and Canada, though divided by the full width of the Pacific Ocean are nevertheless close neighbours commercially and should do increasing business. Shanghai seems to have shown a greater appreciation of the importance of the visit from these Canadian trade prospectors than Hong Kong. But it is the custom, perhaps an unfortunate custom, for Hong Kong to take things easily and informally. Official welcomes and special decorations of quays and buildings are not its usual method. But we can assure the members of the Chamber of Commerce Delegation to China that the significance of their visit is understood; that the local commercial world offers them the warmest of welcome and is thoroughly ready to talk business and to take full advantage of any opportunity to increase trade between ourselves and the Dominion. Hong Kong has grown in eighty years from a barren rock to the sixth port of the world, and it has no intention of letting its usual rate of progress be checked.

SHANGHAI AND THE DOGS.

SHANGHAI Municipal Council deserves congratulation on its decision to abolish dog-racing. The Canidrome in the French Concession is to stay, but that is not the responsibility of the Council, and the French authorities will probably come into line with their colleagues sooner or later. The French are a practical people and have always exercised a paternal control over their colonial subjects. In the far off days when England and France were struggling for dominance in Canada, LOUIS XIV., to his eternal credit, sternly forbade his subjects to supply spirits or wine to the Red Indians. That tradition has been maintained, and though in France betting laws are easier, and more logical, than our own it is most unlikely that Frenchmen would allow any form of gambling to jeopardise their big commercial stake in Shanghai.

What may be termed puritanical onslaughts are always dangerous. The Municipal Council seems, however, to have in mind a "clean up" of their area. They have been ready in the past to call in experts from outside and perhaps they may send invitations to Lord BYNG OF VIMY and Lord BRENTFORD ("Jix") who have done a similar job so thoroughly in London. It is difficult to make people sober or virtuous either by act of Parliament or municipal decree, but the solid business interests in Shanghai, Chinese and foreign alike, would no doubt welcome something of the alleged dullness of Hong Kong. We have to work too hard in these days to be able to be sprightly after midnight. Millionaires no longer grow like common poppies in the Far East, and people who struggle hard for a living have to forego the pleasures enjoyed in those good old days, regretfully, to be slipping away for ever.

★ News and Views ★

The "breeze" which has arisen from the proposal to remove the statue of Gladstone from St. Andrew Square, which is in the centre of Edinburgh, to the comparative obscurity of Saughton Park, in the suburbs, has resulted in the organisation of a protest meeting. The organisers are the Young Scots Society.

Liverpool's Housing Plans.

Speaking at a meeting of the Liverpool Housing Committee, Sir Hugo Rutherford, the chairman, said that the Corporation had erected more than 20,000 houses. Contracts had been let for 500 houses on the Dovecot Estate and for 200 houses on the Speke Estate. Three public halls were to be provided, and at Norris Green a temporary public library, a tram shelter, and a clinic were being built. The new Housing Act, he said, would be operated with energy. More than 400 tenements would be erected in the centre of the city. The committee were now able to offer well-planned houses, possessing a good garden, hot water supply, and electric light, at the low inclusive rental of 8s. 10d. per week.

A Carvalho Yeo of Cairo!

Big frauds on Cairo banks have been revealed by investigations in the case of Aldo Ventura, who was recently arrested in Italy and charged with the attempted bribery of passport officials. Large sums of money were found in his possession, and Ventura later confessed that he had swindled the Cairo bank by which he was employed. Inquiry has shown that Ventura substituted false scrip in clients' dossiers for the originals to the extent of £40,000. This has led to all the Cairo banks investigating their position, with the result that another bank has discovered false scrip to the total £30,000. How far such fraudulent transactions extend is not yet known. All the banks are busy examining their clients' dossiers.

A Great Egg Mystery.

Are brown eggs really more nourishing than white ones? Asks a correspondent to a London paper. South of Manchester, this belief exists strongly. Is there a London housewife who will not choose a brown egg in preference to a white, if both are the same price? Yet in the north it is quite the other way. Glasgow will not look at an egg unless it is snow white. I wonder if any of your readers has reached any scientific opinion on what is evidently a vexed subject. A South African egg merchant tells me that as far as he is concerned, eggs are eggs; just that, and nothing more. Brown or white, they come over in millions, and neither colour has the advantage. For myself, I confess that I do like a brown egg. But I don't know why.

Sir Charles Trevelyan and Harrow!

The Trevelyan family have always been noted for the courage and independence of their convictions, but the Minister of Education recently overstepped the bounds even of his own family tradition! In the club smoking-rooms it will be agreed that Sir Charles Trevelyan is not merely a traitor to his class but a traitor to his old school. For surely it is dreadful that a Minister of Education should criticise our public schools; that an old-Harrovian should cast a slur upon Harrow itself. "At Harrow," said Sir Charles, "the evils of the school were the football and cricket captains." That was a startling thing to say. True it is that our public schools concentrate to-day on brawn rather than on brains. The masters in this policy are supported by the parents. And yet, if the public schools desire to compete with the grammar schools, they will have to offer some slight inducement to the boy who wants to work. This is done without loss of "character-building" at Winchester and Eton and in many other more modern public schools.

"The Passing of the Tram."

There is no question that more and more Municipalities in the United Kingdom are finding that the modern bus will meet their requirements better than the tram car and not a few have already superseded the tram by the more modern method of transport. One of the pioners in this respect is Glasgow Corporation who have been gradually adding to their already large fleet of double-deck buses. Leyland Motors Limited has again been entrusted with their order for seventy-five 51-seater double-deck Titan buses, which represents the seventh order from this Corporation, who will have almost three hundred of these vehicles in service at the completion of this order. Another Corporation to decide to scrap their rams altogether is Wigan Corporation, and this Corporation too has selected the "Titan" as the most suitable bus for their purpose.

The Undergraduette.

Undergraduettes who on reading a recent attack on them in "Isis" (the Oxford University magazine) were very indignant. "This goes further than any previous tilt at us," declared one girl. "My opinion is that jealousy is at the root of the trouble." Here are some of the nice things said of the undergraduettes in the article in the "Isis": The women are not decorous but unseemly, undignified and unfledged. Riding bicycles in the streets with a shocking display of black worsted. Bringing belated breakfasts of chocolates and biscuits into the lecture room. "The men, poor dears, are obviously jealous of us, although they won't admit it," commented the undergraduette. "They think themselves so very superior because they have been coming here for hundreds of years." Another undergraduette at Lady Margaret Hall said: "Many men munch chocolates and even chew gum at the lectures. There are plenty of other points on which we could criticise them, especially in matters of dress, and their habit of wandering about the streets half-clad."

WELCOME TO THE CANADIAN TRADE DELEGATES.

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce Delegates to China and Japan returned to the Colony yesterday afternoon from Canton, where they had a cordial reception from the Municipal and Provincial Governments.

We take this opportunity of welcoming them to Hong Kong. It is needless to emphasise that they will be received with friendship and hospitality. That is the tradition of the East. We are sure they will find an active and enterprising community, fully alive to the possibilities of trade between Canada and Hong Kong, and ready to take in hand any form of enterprise conducive to the prosperity of the great Dominion and of this emporium of European trade in the East.

Looking Back 50 Years.

Considerable delay and much vexatious annoyance was caused at the inquests held yesterday afternoon, by the unpunctuality of the Coroner in his attendance. The time fixed for the inquiries was three o'clock, and at that hour, the jurors, two medical officers, a number of witnesses, and the usual Government officials, inspectors and interpreters, were present, but the Coroner failed to put in an appearance till fifteen minutes to four o'clock, just three quarters of an hour after the time for which the summonses had been issued. On his arrival Mr. Northcote expressed his regret at the delay and explained that it was unavoidable on his part as he had been detained on business by the Colonial Secretary. The jurors meanwhile had been complaining in no measured terms, and Mr. McClymont protested most vehemently against such an unprecedented unpunctuality on the part of the Coroner, pointing out that a number of gentlemen had been detained most unnecessarily from their business, at a considerable loss of both time and money. —Hong Kong Daily Press, Nov. 24, 1880.

INDIAN ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE.

PRIME MINISTER SUMS UP FUTURE CONSTITUTION.

PRESS HOPEFUL OF THE PROSPECTS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Nov. 22.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, in closing the general discussion at the Round Table Plenary Session, which went into Committee, laid stress on the unprecedented character of the gathering as a "union of India sitting at the Council table with the British Government and with the British Parliament," indicating that a mile-stone had been reached presaging a different future from the past. This in itself was a recognition of the status that can never be departed from. He said that Sir Srinavasa Sastri was not the only man who had changed his views in the last few days. Their speeches had greatly influenced public opinion, and they had gone beyond debate. They were here for action, and it was untrue to say that anyone was going back on their pledges. Since 1917 the Government had accepted everything that had been officially said.

A United India.

They had to face practical requirements. He did not like the word "difficulty." The problem was precisely the same as at the Imperial Conference, which in 1923 made a great declaration, and 1930 had put a content into that declaration. They had to sit together in full faith that they can find a way through.

"Within six weeks of the Conference agreeing, responsibilities must be faced by you in India and by us here."

Mr. MacDonald emphasised that the declaration by the Princes revolutionised the situation and simplified our duties. The Princes had substantially contributed to opening the way to a really united, federated India.

Good debating speeches would not solve their problems. They must supply practical answers to the questions about the nature of the federation which can be embodied in an Act of Parliament. Whatever constitution they developed, they must work and they must evolve. They were not in a position to produce a static constitution.

Mr. MacDonald recalled the history of our evolving Dominions, and concluded by hoping that as a result of the work of the committees, agreement would be registered, enabling them to return to India happy and powerful men, strengthening the friendship between Britain and India, and enormously amplifying their desire to co-operate.

Indian Army As a Bulwark.

LONDON, Nov. 22.

The demand for Indian Federation was further brought out in the final speeches at the Plenary Session of the Indian Round Table Conference.

Sher Mohammed Khan (Moslem), an ex-Captain in the Indian Army, described the army as a bulwark against the limitless ambition of the trans-border peoples of foreign Powers, to whose fury the teeming millions of Madras and Bombay would be exposed if the British ships were withdrawn for a single day.

Viceroy and Army.

He suggested that the Army should be controlled by a Council headed by the Viceroy, that it be kept entirely free of political influences, and be more freely recruited from the martial races.

Mr. Jah Dav (a non-Brahmin) thought that the communal difficulties had been exaggerated as the younger generation realised that for the sake of India's unity, the differences of caste and creed and race must disappear.

"Unpalatable Truths."

Mr. Chinta Mani (Liberal) paid a warm tribute to the manner in which the British delegates had listened to a number of "unpalatable truths."

The Aga Khan asked for the promise of a framework of self-Government, and then in time they could paint a picture on it that would satisfy every section, including the British commercial element.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, Nov. 22.

The five days' general discussion at the Indian Round Table Conference was concluded to-day by the Prime Minister, President of the Conference. In his speech he said that the simple objective fact that the Conference was assembled in itself was a recognition of the status which could never be departed from. Regarding the pledges since 1917, the Government had accepted everything that had been said officially and the Conference would have the proof that they meant to carry it out.

The magnificent speeches by the Princes and by the representatives of practically every interested community and group in India had been extraordinarily practical. The deliberations of the Conference have given a most substantial contribution in opening the way to a really united and federated India.

"We want for India a federation which is flexible which meets India's historical inheritance, which enables mergings to take place and embodies in itself the authority of the States and the liberty of the individual. The problem now was to supply practical answers for embodying in an Act of Parliament to questions regarding the nature of the component units to be fitted into the scheme of federation, the nature of the central co-ordinating structure, the relations of this structure to the Provinces, its relations to the States, the provisions necessary to secure the willing co-operation of minorities and the special interests of the subjects with which the central structure would deal, and in general, its powers, functions and responsibilities.

A constitution must meet two fundamental requirements. It must work and it must evolve. That was the history of all the constitutions of the Dominions. On leaving the Conference to the Committees he said that they would proceed with the best will not only of the Government but of the British Parliament.

Greater Security.

Before the Prime Minister rose the Aga Khan, Chairman of the British Indian Delegation, made a short but important speech. They had heard, he said, practically every school of Indian thought and if all differences were eliminated there was on one point complete unanimity. They all asked for a full measure self-government. "We ask you to promise us the framework. If the picture we are to paint in is unsatisfactory to any of the important minorities, or to the Princes, or to the small section of the minorities, we will try again and we will continue trying till we produce something that will be generally satisfactory. I for one am particularly anxious that it shall be in a form which will ensure that not only every Indian minority but the British commercial element in India shall be satisfied that their interests are safe.

"As to the interests of this country, united India could offer her far greater security as to her commercial interests than anything she has at present."

There was no reason why if they could produce a federal scheme that would please the Princes, Hindus, Muslims and smaller minorities and would satisfy all legitimate commercial interests, they should not at this moment start on a basis of full self-government and reponsibility.

Real Work Commencing To-day.

RUGBY, Nov. 22.

The Indian Round Table Conference will begin its real work on Monday, when the first meeting of the Federal Relations Committee will set about the task of translating the general agreement which emerged from the five days' plenary session into practical proposals for submission first to the Conference and ultimately to Parliament.

Press Comment.

A hopeful view of the prospects is taken by the Press.

The Times comments on the remarkable unanimity shown in the speeches. "Perhaps the most hopeful impression left by the debate is that it has at least placed abstract conceptions of the States and federation in their proper order. Status is coming to be recognized as a matter of achievement not of a gift coping-stone and a consequences of the capacity for self-government rather than the first stage in framing a constitution. There can be no progress in the discussion of any committee over the details till the broad outlines of the structure are settled. Sceptics are asking already how long the great ideal of these last few days will survive the next stages of the Conference, for whatever else it may imply there is no doubt that federation does mean a definite sacrifice on the part of all its members. The appointment of a vast committee on federal relations may, however, be hailed for the moment as a welcome sign that a new idea predominates."

The Times records two personal impressions of the long discussion: Firstly, the spontaneous and prolonged applause which greeted every mention of the Viceroy (Lord Irwin); and, secondly, that the Prime Minister proved himself a tactful, sympathetic and infinitely patient Chairman.

The Morning Post, while not undervaluing the power of words, says: "The problems of the defence of the frontiers, the maintenance of law and order, and the rights of the minorities and the protection of British interests remain. The federal proposal has at least the advantage of bringing in the Princes who are a stable and whether it can be reconciled with those things which the Simon Commission rightly held to be essential.

The Manchester Guardian says British policy in India since the war has been entirely consistent, and with sincerity has declared its firm intention that India should enjoy complete self-government within the Empire, reaching the ultimate aim by stages. Events have shown that the "conflict between the British view based on the necessity for gradualness and the Indian demand for all or nothing. The offer of the Indian Princes to come at once into an all-India federation has ended this conflict, because they will introduce into the legislature an element of balance racial, religious and political. The Princes, however, will assuredly make conditions, minority communities will demand safeguards, and the British Government will require some measure of control of the army and of foreign affairs for the time being. The British Indian delegates have very definite ideas as to what constitutes a democratic institution. But these difficulties are adjustable, and it is for the Committee to adjust them."

The Daily Herald says the Indian demand is a pikestaff plain, and it is for the Committee to discuss not whether, but how fast it is to move full self-government. It is supremely difficult but not insuperable task.

SHANGHAI DOG RACING DOOMED.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL'S DEFINITE DECISION.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, Nov. 22.

The Shanghai Municipal Council has decided to abolish greyhound racing in the International Settlement.

The decision affects two British operated courses, whose shares have slumped appreciably following the publication of correspondence between the Municipal officials, in which the view was expressed that commercialised gambling was largely responsible for the increase in crime.

How and when the Council's decision will be carried into effect has not yet been decided.

A considerable section of the public, particularly the Chinese organisations, have long been agitating for the abolition of greyhound racing, while Japanese officials recently decided to forbid Japanese subjects to frequent the courses.

It is noteworthy that the Canidrome, in the French Concession, is not affected.

RAILWAY DISASTER IN FRANCE.

PARIS EXPRESS TRAIN DERAILED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANTES, Nov. 22.

The express train from Paris was derailed near Oudon to-day, owing to the subsidence of the track, as a result of heavy rains flooding the river Loire.

The engine and two coaches fell into the river, and the driver and stoker were killed.

Most of the passengers in the front of the train were injured or trapped by the wreckage and drowned.

A signalman who saw the subsidence and rushed on to the line to warn the train was run down and cut to pieces.

Passengers' Dramatic Escapes.

The dramatic escapes of passengers through smashed windows of the submerged coaches limited the fatalities to the driver, whose body was carried away by the river and has not yet been recovered.

Fourteen persons were injured, some lacerated by broken glass, and sent to hospital.

Four are in a serious condition.

SHANGHAI TRAIN DERAILMENT.

FISHPLATES REMOVED BY WRECKERS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, Nov. 22.

It is learned that the fish-plates were removed for a distance of more than 100 yards on the line causing the derailment of a third-class train bound for Shanghai between Hwangtu and Anting, about 16 miles from Shanghai.

The damage is considerable.

So far there have been no arrests.

BRITISH LEGATION AT PEIPING.

NO INTENTION OF REMOVAL AT PRESENT.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Nov. 23.

With reference to the report from Nanking that the Chinese Government had decided to redeem the site of all the foreign Legations at Peiping, the Sunday Times learns that the British Government has no intention of moving the Legation from Peiping at present.

PERUVIAN CABINET RESIGNS.

DISSATISFACTION WITH LABOUR PROBLEMS.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.

A message from Lima states that the provisional Cabinet formed after the revolt against President Leguia has resigned.

It is surmised that this is due to dissatisfaction at the manner in which the labour troubles were handled.

HIGH COMMISSIONER IN SOUTH AFRICA.

REASONS FOR RECENT APPOINTMENT.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, Nov. 22.

Regarding Sir Herbert Stanley's appointment to South Africa, an official announcement says the British Government hoped that it would be possible to retain him for some time longer in Ceylon and thus be responsible for the administration of the Colony whilst the new constitution, in the framing of which he played so respotisible and notable a part, was brought into full operation. But the previous experience of Sir Herbert Stanley in South Africa, where he served from 1910 to 1924, rendered him very specially suitable as the first holder of the combined post in South Africa. At his own request, he has been authorised to remain in Ceylon until February, 1931.

The dual post carries with it responsibility for the administration of Basutoland, Bechuanaland Protectorate and Swaziland, and certain supervisory functions in relation to native affairs in Southern Rhodesia.

"UNKNOWN SOLDIER" TOMBS.

UNITED STATES ACCEPTS BRITISH SUGGESTION.

He concluded by imparting the apostolic benediction to "missionaries struggling for the faith among the Chinese."

LONDON-NEW YORK MAIL SERVICE.

REDUCING TIME TO THREE DAYS.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.

In an effort to establish a three-day mail service between London and New York, the United States Lines have submitted plans to the Navy Department for two new 50,000-ton liners, equipped with catapults, to enable mail 'planes to be launched from them some 600 to 1,000 miles at sea. The new liners are expected to be speedier than the Europa or the Bremen (now holding the Atlantic blue riband) and will cost about £6,000,000 each.

It is reported that the North German Lloyd Line, which is operating a ship-to-shore mail service, intends next Spring to cut 24 hours in the same way from the present mail schedule.

FINANCIAL SCANDAL IN FRANCE.

CHAMBER DECIDES UPON AN ENQUIRY.

PREPARATORY DISARMAMENT COMMISSION.

FIXING THE GLOBAL ANNUAL EXPENDITURE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, Nov. 22.

Further progress was made by the Disarmament Committee to-day, which adopted by 19 votes to 2 the British proposals to base the limitation of armaments upon global annual expenditure on land, sea, and air forces.

The dissentients (Mr. Hugh Gibson, of the United States, and Mr. Sato, of Japan) motion to limit each arm separately was rejected by 8 votes to 7, but a French amendment was accepted in favour of fixing the global figure as low as possible.

Exchange of Information Convention.

LATER.

The Disarmament Commission discussed the articles of the draft Convention dealing with exchange of information regarding arms, ammunition and implements of war in the service of the contracting parties.

The Commission adopted a French amendment laying down that contracting parties forward to the League Secretariat an annual statement of the number of youths having received compulsory military training during the previous year.

A Polish amendment was also adopted providing that the contracting parties should furnish explanatory notes showing the elements on which the returns are based.

BANKING CRISIS IN AMERICA.

COMPLETE INVESTIGATION PROMISED.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.

Eleven banks in five States in the south and lower middle west closed their doors to-day.

Banks in English, Lenvenworth, Corydon, and Corydon Junction, all small communities in South Indiana, have been taken over by the States Banking Department.

Other failures occurred in Paris, Tennessee, Donippan, and Edina (Missouri), and Crestwood (a suburb of Louisville), Madisonville (Kentucky), Ashville (North Carolina) and a negro bank at Nashville, Tennessee.

The Asheville failure made the ninth in North Carolina in two days.

The Missouri closings are attributed to heavy withdrawals.

The Governor of Tennessee has promised a full and complete investigation of all States and Government Departments in consequence of financial difficulties.

RELEASED JAPANESE DIES AT FOOCHOW.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

FOOCHOW, Nov. 22.

The death occurred here yesterday of a well-known Japanese resident, Mr. Kiyoji Araya, who a month ago was captured by bandits while upcountry seeking to obtain the release of one of his collectors, who was reported to be held by the Commander of the first division of the provincial army. Payment of a large sum finally secured Mr. Araya's release on November 18, but he was in a critical state of health and died yesterday in the Japanese hospital here.

FIGHTING BRITISH WORKERS' BATTLE.

DRAMATIC EVENTS FORESHADOWED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Nov. 22.

The smouldering left wing discontent over the "Government's compromises with Capitalism," evidenced by the disciplinary meetings of the Parliamentary Labour Party to chastise disloyalty, burst into flames at a Glasgow meeting of the "Big Five" Clydeside Labour Members of Parliament, in resolving to support Baillie Irwin at the East Renfrew bye-election, in spite of the Government's disavowal of Mr. Irwin's candidature.

The militants hope to have a score of Labour members in East Renfrew, including Sir Oswald Mosley, next week, "fighting the workers' battle against the Government."

The hostilities, which are virtually between the Government and the Independent Labour Party, centre on the latter's decision to oppose the Government and the House of Commons whenever the Government departs from the I.L.P. policy.

The Liberal News Chronicle to-day foreshadows dramatic events in which prominent Cabinet Ministers will figure, which may change the whole political situation before Christmas as, in addition to internal embarrassments, the Government is faced with a series of Conservative censure motions relating to the Imperial Conference, safeguarding, the lapsing of the Dyestuffs Act, and unemployment insurance.

BELGIUM ORDERS BRITISH FIGHTING 'PLANES.

LARGEST FOREIGN ORDER EVER RECEIVED.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, Nov. 22.

The Belgian Government to-day confirmed their order for single-seater fighting aeroplanes of the Fairey Firefly pattern, which is believed to be the largest order for military aircraft ever received in Great Britain from a foreign Government.

The Fairey Fireflies, equipped with 500 horse-power Rolls-Royce engines, are one of the fastest military types in the world, having a maximum speed with a full military load of considerably over 200 miles per hour.

Week End Sport.

SENSATIONAL WIN FOR SOUTH CHINA.

ARGYLLS BADLY TROUNCED AT SOOKUNPOO.

CHINESE ATHLETIC RETURNS TO LEAGUE: WIN OVER POLICE.

The big match of the week—South China v. Argylls—which attracted a record crowd to Sookunpoo, resulted in a sensational win for the Chinese team by seven goals to one. They now head the table with the maximum points for eight matches, and it seems almost certain they will remain there for the rest of the season.

After an absence of some weeks from the field, the Chinese Athletic made a welcome re-appearance and they beat the Police by the odd goal in three, while the Club were overwhelmed by the Navy. Kowloon and Somersets took full points from R.A. and Recreio respectively.

In the second division, St. Joseph's scored ten goals against Recreio while the meeting of the Somersets and Eastern resulted in a win for the former by the only goal scored in the match.

On the whole, seventy goals were scored in the fourteen matches played, which makes an average of five goals per match. The meeting of the R.E.'s and R.A.S.C. in the third division saw the former winning by the odd goal in nine while Ewo and South China engaged in a goalless draw.

LEAGUE—DIVISION I.

CLUB v. NAVY.

Playing on the Navy ground, the Club were badly trounced by the senior service by the margin of seven goals to nil.

The teams were:—

Navy: Clucas; Dixon, Langmead; Gatehouse, Tilley, Butler; Magee, Cartwright, Pearce, Stephen and Dickinson.

Club: Rodger; Bishop, Strange; Watson, Stewart, McBride; G. Duncan, Bell, Segalen, A. Duncan and Fowler.

Stewart won the toss and chose to play with the wind, but the sailors broke through immediately to let Pearce score a first minute goal. This was followed by another raid on the Club goal but Rodger cleared. However, Dickinson got the ball again and passed to Cartwright who put in the second goal for the sailors. Then good work by Duncan and Segalen saw the leather being transferred to the sailors' half but Bell headed outside.

Continuing to attack, the sailors scored their third goal through Stephenson. They continued to press until a good kick by Bishop sent Fowler away, and the Club then did a little attacking but with no result. Then the Navy got going again, and a good pass by Magee to Dickinson saw the latter scoring the fourth goal for them. This was followed by another goal by Magee and "lemon time" arrived with the senior service men still attacking.

The second half saw the Club playing better together though in spite of their efforts they were not able to score. The sailors, on the other hand, put in two further goals through Dickinson and Magee to bring the final scores to Navy 7, Club 0.

RECREIO v. SOMERSETS.

Playing on their home ground, the Club de Recreio went down to the Somersets by three clear goals. The score, however, is not a true reflection of the strength of the sides, and while the soldiers thoroughly deserved their win, it would not be fair to omit mentioning the fact that if the home team had had a little of the "joss" that was going, a different tale might be told.

Starting with only nine men, the Somersets were hard put to it at the early stages of the game, but they concentrated on their defence and managed to keep the Recreio forwards at bay. As the late comers arrived, the pressure slackened somewhat, and both goalkeepers had a busy time. Early in the first half, the soldiers scored and although play swung up and down the field, the Recreio forwards were unable to produce an equaliser. Several promising efforts were hullified through weak shooting.

Resuming after the interval, the home team went all out for the equaliser, but found the Somerset defence too sound. The soldiers, in their turn, made several visits to the Recreio goal area, but could not increase their advantage.

Some very fast play was seen and a few minutes before the end, Butcher added to the soldiers' score. The third goal against the Recreio was scored when the final whistle was almost due.

The teams were as follows:—

Recreio: W. Lawrence; E. Lawrence and Xavier; Beltrao, A. Gosano and Marques; B. Gosano, Silva, Ward, Rocha and Santos.

Somersets: Verrier; Huish and Earley; Troth, West and Denmead; Rendle, Baker, Knapp, Bewley-Bull and Butcher.

KOWLOON v. R. A.

Quite a crowd went to the Railway ground to watch these two teams engage in what turned out to be a very close and exciting game, with the Kowloon team winning by four goals to two.

Winning the toss, the Gunners set the home team to play with the sun in their eyes, and after a shot from Moore into the side of the net, Fletcher was given a busy spell. The opening goal for Kowloon came when Frearson miskicked in front of his own goal, and taking advantage of this, Ianson rushed in to slam the ball into the net, giving Fletcher no chance whatever. The gunners then attacked and a forced corner looked dangerous for Kowloon when Pile relieved with a hefty kick.

A free kick was awarded the gunners and Moore ran through to put in the equaliser for them. However, the Kowloon team were not to be disheartened, and attacking hard, they were soon rewarded with another goal, Ianson sending in a nice shot which gave Fletcher no chance. Half-time came with Kowloon leading by the odd goal in three.

The Second Half.

On resumption, the gunners attacked but found Angus safe. A spell of midfield play followed after which the leather was taken into the Artillery territory again, and here Frearson had the misfortune to kick into his own goal. This was followed by several raids on the R.A. goal but Fletcher was always safe, then the ball was taken to the Kowloon half when Gill got a shot. Midfield play again became the order of the day, the final whistle going with the scores Kowloon 4; R.A. 2.

The teams were:—

Kowloon:—Angus; Martin, Pile; Bowman, McKelvie, Gilchrist, Moss, Simpson, Gillott, Hedley and Ianson.

R.A.:—Fletcher; Frearson, Taylor, McDonald, Gardner, Joyce; Gough, Allen, Gill, Moore and Woods.

Referee: Mr. Scott.

ARGYLLS v. SOUTH CHINA.

This much looked-forward to match took place at Sookunpoo but proved to be a disappointment for the supporters of the military team, as, playing with almost perfect combination, the Chinese scored a 7-1 victory.

The teams were:—

Argylls:—Gardiner; Hay, Henderson; Gordon, Yeoman, McDonald; Christie, McKenna, King, Cannon and Campbell.

South China:—Pau Ka Ping; Lee Tin Sang, Lam Mau; Leung Yin Chan, Wong Mee Shun, Leung Wing Chin; Chan Mee On, Chu Kwok Lun, Fung King Cheong Tam Kong Pak and Ip Pak Wah.

Immediately from the start, Chu Kwok Lun ran through to score a sensational goal for the Chinese and in the following minute Tam Kong Pak added the second one.

This appeared to have some effect on the Argylls, and they retaliated when King reduced the lead with a good shot. However, this proved to be their one and only goal, and South China went on to add five more before the end came.

Keeping up the attack, South China were awarded a penalty but this did not result in a goal. The ball was then taken over to their half, but was soon sent away again when Fung King Cheon added the third goal for the Chinese. This was followed by another from Chan Mee On and although the soldiers tried hard, they could not score again; Fung King Cheong put in the fifth South China goal just before half-time with a low drive.

The Chinese gave an excellent exhibition of good football in the second half and ran the soldiers off their feet. The Scots tried hard but were no match for their clever and speedy opponents who added two more goals through Chu Kwok Lun and Tam Kong Pak. The final scores were: South China 7; Argylls 1.

ATHLETIC v. POLICE.

Playing on their home ground, the Chinese Athletic obtained full points from the Police whom they beat by two goals to one. The win was a meritorious one and the game was one of the best of the season.

The Police put up a stout resistance at the outset, and although the Chinese forwards combined well together, they were unable to score until a few minutes before the interval when Ho Ka Keung and Lam Yuk Ying scored in quick succession.

Resuming after the interval, the Chinese attacked again and again, but the Police managed by sheer grit to keep the ball out. Ten minutes before the end Fraser sent in a beautiful ground shot which reduced the lead to a single goal. From this point onward the Police worked very hard for the equaliser, and some good football was seen. The Chinese backs, however, were equal to the occasion and the final whistle arrived with the score at 2-1 in favour of the home team.

The teams were as follows:—

Athletics:—Chan Sik Pui; Wong Sui Wo, Lai Yuk Tat; Leung Yuk Tong, Lam Yuk Ying, Ho Chu Yin; Mak Kwok Tung, Leung Tat Wing, Ho Ka Keung, Lee Yee Son and Fung King Chu.

Police:—Clarke; Brittain, Williams; Cornwall, Oram, Shepherd; Pile, Howarth, Fraser, McGreavey and Brown.

DIVISION II.

SOMERSETS v. EASTERN.

Eastern, who had not lost a match since the beginning of the football season, suffered their first defeat at the hands of the Somersets. This game, which was played at King's Park, aroused many ruffled tempers, with the result that one player was ordered off the field, and several cautioned.

From the kick-off, the ball was quickly taken from end to end, both goals having narrow escapes. A few minutes later the Somersets were awarded a penalty, but Guest, who took the kick, hit the bar and the ball rebounded into play.

The Sets' forwards, who were combining quite well, again came to the fore and I. Guest put them ahead.

Eastern transferred play for a time and Sabban had hard luck in missing the goal by inches with a hard ground shot. From now on the Eastern attacked strongly but the clever defence put up by the Sets stopped them.

Result:—

Somersets	1
Eastern	0

Somersets:—Hall; Green Fothergill; Savingar, Cornelius, Legg; Kearle, P. Guest, I. Guest, Layshon and Chislett.

Eastern:—da Silva; Lo Yat Ming, Lai Ting Choi; Ng Ying Ki, Sui Ping Shun, Lau Kwok Iu; Chau Sang, Mak Siu Hon, Ng York Hon, Sabban and Lee Bing Tong.

Referee: P.O. Ford.

NAVY v. KOWLOON.

Playing on their own ground, the Royal Navy defeated Kowloon by seven goals to nil. From the start the Navy attacked but were many times stopped from scoring by Angus, who kept well for Kowloon. From one of the corners the Navy forced, Kirkby scored with a shot that hit the upright and entered the net.

After the interval, the Navy again attacked and Kirkby, who was playing clever football, added two more goals to his account. Play was then mostly confined to the Kowloon half and the Navy had much their own way, with the result that they added four more goals before the final whistle was sounded.

Navy:—Aitken; Carter, Howell; Robertson, Hobbs, Vincent; Morgan, Scorer, Kirkby, Nash and Skinner.

Kowloon:—Angus; Spary, Eastman; White, Everest, Smith; Davies, Sutherland and Bickford.

ST. JOSEPH'S v. RECREIO.

The Club de Recreio suffered an overwhelming defeat by ten goals to nil at the hands of St. Joseph's when they met on the latter's ground at Happy Valley. The match was very one-sided and the Recreio were two men short throughout the game.

The Saints attacked from the start and after five minutes' play Bautista scored an easy goal. This was followed in quick succession by three further goals by Souza, Bautista and Omar.

The second half was a repetition of the first. The Saints had much their own way and added six more goals—bringing the total to ten—before the final whistle was sounded.

St. Joseph's:—Rocha; T. Leonard Ayock; A. M. Omar, K. M. Omar O. M. Omar; Ali, Bautista, Haroon Sousa and Fernandes.

Recreio: Silva; Costa, R. Britto Assis, Souza, Gonsalves; C. Marques Santos, Allemao.

SOUTH CHINA v. CLUB.

On their ground, the Club surprised the Chinese and beat them by three goals to one. From the start the Chinese attacked but after a fruitless corner, the Club transferred play. Smith tested the goalkeeper with a good shot and Bell sent narrowly behind. After some end to end play, the Club returned to the attack and during a melee Taylin put the ball into the net.

Not to be deterred by this setback South China attacked strongly, and after some good forward passes Yau Wah Hing equalised from close in.

After the interval, the Club became dangerous, and from a corner kick Jackson put the Club ahead with a low drive. Just before the end Bell added a third with a fast drive.

South China:—Tsoi Kin Hang; Lau Kau, Cheung Fai Lum; Yau Wah Hing, To Kwan, Cheung Kwok Choi; Wong King Chung, Ip Yau Sum, Wu Yin Tung, Chouk Shuk Kam and Kwok Hon Wah.

Club:—Fogwell; Stoker, Hynes; Sloan, Puncheon, Hooper; Smith, Bell, Strange, Jackson and Taylin.

Referee: Cpl. Hayball.

R.A. ATHLETIC.

After a three weeks' rest the Chinese Athletic met the Gunners at Sookunpoo and proved too strong for them. From the kick-off the Athletic, with wind behind them, attacked strongly, and ten minutes later Lai Kwok Chiu opened the scoring from a foul-kick. Though the Gunners had a fair share of the play they were weak in the forward line and this robbed them of a few chances. On the other hand the Chinese forwards played clever football and increased their lead by three goals.

DIVISION III.

R.A.S.C. v. R.F.

These two military teams met at Chatham Road ground and the game ended by the odd goal in nine in favour of the R.F. The Service Corps were the first to open the scoring, Lewis taking a flag kick and the ball curving into the net. A few minutes later McCulloch put them further ahead. The Sappers, however, were not to be discouraged, and after some fine passing on the part of the forwards, Noad and Himbury equalised.

After the interval, the Sappers took the lead but the Service Corps soon drew level through Hamer. At the end, however the Engineers proved to be the better team and went ahead through Himbury and Sloan.

Result:—

R.A.S.C.	4
R.E.	5

R.E.: Sabin; Jopling, Meehan; Grovenor, Fritwell, Noad; Cisey, Himbury, Morgan and Sloan.

R.A.S.C.: — Brennan; Funnel, Cole; Barnstaple, Hamer, Craggs; Castelow, Slack, Allside, McCulloch, and Lewis.

Referee: C.S.M. Courtney.

ATHLETIC v. SOMERSETS.

Playing on their own ground the Chinese Athletic drew with the Somersets by two goals all. The Athletic were the first to attack and had the Sets continually on the defensive. The first goal for the Chinese was scored from a penalty. Encouraged by this the Chinese added another before the interval.

After the interval, the Sets showed a determined effort to wipe off the arrears. Constant pressure by the Sets forwards were down the Chinese defence and Churchill scored on two occasions.

Result:—

Athletic	2
Somersets	2

Athletics:—Chong Lap Fan; Tang Chung Pak, Chow Kwong Hung; Ng Tin Hing (captain), Li Ping Shu, Tang Kwong Sum; Chang Chung Iu, Wong Wing Hong, Ng Ping Kwong and Chow Hau Lung.

Somersets:—Rodgers; Crawley, Wride; Fear (captain), Padgett, Penny; Clapham, Walker, Churchill, Cotton and Vine.

Referee: Mr. Mese (Hong Kong).

R.A.O.C. v. R.A.F.

This match was played on the Chinese Athletic Ground at Happy Valley and ended in a win for the R.A.O.C. by three goals to two. Play was fairly even in the first ten minutes, till Atkins put the R.A.F. ahead with a nice shot. From now on the R.A.O.C. attacked, and Sands soon equalised for them. The same player scored the winning goal afterwards.

R.A.O.C.:—Evans; Sanderson, Bayly; Peachey, Jackson, Walton; Sanson, Clarke, Sands, Redman and Moran.

R.A.F.: — Griffith; Rowland, Harvey; Jones, Hart, Handford; Ward, Cox, Atkins, Summers and Hudson.

Referee: Sgt. Vickery.

These fees are in each instance double those now in force.

PILOTAGE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

DETAILS OF PERSONNEL.

According to the Gazette, the following gentlemen have been appointed by His Excellency the Governor as members of the Pilotage Board of Examiners:—

The Deputy Harbour Master (President).
An Officer of the Royal Navy.
Mr. Charles Butler Riggs.
Mr. Reginald Dowsett Thomas.
Mr. Arthur William Heron.

RENT OF PIERS.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO LOCAL ORDINANCE.

The Gazette contains the draft of an Ordinance to amend further the Piers Ordinance, 1899.

It is explained that the provisions of Section 3 (4) of the Piers Ordinance, 1899, which permit the Governor in Council to remit the whole or any portion of the rent of a pier is limited in terms to "temporary" piers. This has proved an embarrassing limitation in certain cases, especially in the New Territories, and is contrary to the spirit of the Crown Fees Governor in Council is given a general discretionary power to reduce fees.

INDIAN RECREATION CLUB'S "DOUBLE."

SOOKUNPOO CLUB HEADING BOTH DIVISIONS.

CRAIGENGOWER AGAIN TROUNCE KOWLOON IN FRIENDLY.

Although no less than eight cricket matches were played over the week-end, only two of these were league fixtures, and those resulted in victories for the Indian Recreation Club over the Navy and Police in the senior and junior divisions, respectively. While the I.R.C. have secured 10 points out of a possible 12 in Division I., they have not dropped a point in the junior section out of five matches played and are now being seriously considered as contenders of championship honours.

Craigengower Cricket Club again got the better of Kowloon (last season's champions), while a high-scoring match between H.K.C.C. and C.S.C.C. resulted in a draw.

League batting honours went to A. R. H. Esmail, of the I.R.C. seconds, who made 80 not out, while F. M. el Arculli of the same team was the most successful bowler, his figures being 5 for 18.

FINE C.S.C.C. FIRST-WICKET STAND.

LEAGUE—DIVISION I.

GOOD BOWLING BY INDIANS.

Playing at home, the Royal Navy won the toss but going in to bat, they found A. R. Minu and F. D. Pereira bowling on the top of their form with the result that the whole side was out for a paltry 57 runs. The former secured six wickets for 29 runs while the latter had 4 for 23. Glass and Baker were the highest scorers for the Navy, each making 11 runs.

Senior Service Lose By Three Wickets.

With only 58 runs to get for a win, it looked as though the Indians would have an easy task, but they soon had a shock for Laslett was bowling extremely well and at one stage seven wickets were drawn for 48 runs. Then a partnership between A. A. Rumjahn (40 not out) and Pereira (29) changed the entire complexion of the game, the visitors eventually winning by 3 wickets. Rumjahn played a very stylish innings, while Pereira hit a beautiful sixer in the course of an exterprising knock.

For the Navy, Laslett returned the good average of 7 for 36.

The scores were:—

DIVISION II.

INDIANS BEAT POLICE EASILY AT HAPPY VALLEY.

Opening the innings for the Police, Alexander (25) and Booker (24) put on 44 runs for the first wicket and the home team appeared to be in for a big innings when the rest of their batsmen failed before some good bowling, and the side was retired for 107 runs. Williamson made 15 while Loughlin helped with 11 not out. F. M. el Arculli took 5 for 18 runs for the visitors.

Esmail Shines With the Bat.

Going in first for the visitors, M. P. Madar took practically all the sting off the bowling with a drive past cover on several occasions: Hiptoola collected 31 very rapidly. The Indians won by seven wickets, and when stumps were drawn, they had totalled 196 for five wickets.

FRIENDLY MATCHES.

HIGH SCORES AT HAPPY VALLEY.

Playing at home Civil Service Cricket Club drew with the Hong Kong Cricket Club in a high-scoring match.

The visitors batted first, and with Owen Hughes making 61 (retired), Beck 36, Wright 40 and Reid 31 not out, declared at 179 for the loss of 4 wickets.

A first wicket stand for 110 by Sayer (56) and Richardson (67 not out) gave the C.S.C.C. an excellent start. Then they lost three wickets cheaply and at the close were 141 for 4 wickets.

The scores were:—

H.K.C.C. (4 wickets, dec.)	179
C.S.C.C. (total for 4 wickets)	141

K.C.C. AGAIN LOSE TO C.C.C.

Good Bowling by R. Lee.

Keeping a perfect length and coming in dangerously from the leg, R. Lee, the Craigengower bowler, who took 6 wickets for 14 runs against K.C.C. at Happy Valley on Saturday, played a great part in the five-wicket victory for the home team.

Kowloon batted first but were all out for 36 runs, Lyal being the only man to reach double figure. He made 14 runs.

Faced with this small total, the home team started disastrously, the first three wickets falling for only one run. Then Paterson came to the rescue with 41 runs, the side finally being out for 89.

The scores were:—

K.C.C.	46
C.C.C.	89

CLUB SECONDS WIN.

Another High Scoring Match.

While their senior teams were engaged at Happy Valley, the junior elevens of H.K.C.C. and C.S.C.C. took the field on the town ground in what eventually turned out to be a high-scoring match.

The visitors who batted first made 176 runs for 7 wickets when they declared their innings closed. A. E. Wood was top-scorer with a well-played 42.

Going in to bat, the Club went for the runs from the start, and thanks to 34 by Armstrong and 37 by Planner, passed their opponents' total with three wickets in hand. When stumps were drawn they had 185 for 7.

The scores were:—

C.S.C.C. (7 wickets, dec.)	176
H.K.C.C. (for 7 wickets)	185

KOWLOON SECONDS DRAW WITH ARGYLLS.

Fine "Keeping" by Capt. Moir.

A feature of this match at King's Park was the fine wicket-keeping of Capt. Moir who stumped no less than four batsmen.

The home team taking first knock, totalled 163, with Hall (49) as top-scorer, while Raven made 29 and Smith 26.

The Argylls replied with 101 for 5, Dewar-Durie being top-scorer with 30 while Robson had 27 and Taylor 22.

The scores were:—

K.C.C.	163
A. & S. H. (for 5 wickets)	101

WIN FOR CLUB DE RECREIO.

Good Bowling by G. Guterres.

Club de Recreio entertained Craigengower Cricket Club juniors in a friendly and won comfortably by seven wickets. G. A. Guterres distinguished himself with a fine piece of bowling, taking 4 wickets for 5 runs, thus helping to dismiss the visitors who batted first for the small total of 65 runs.

The home team had no difficulty in knocking off the required runs, and when stumps were drawn, they had 157 for 5, with F. J. Remedios (56, retired) as top-scorer.

The scores were:—

C.C.C.	65
Recreio (for 5 wickets)	157

R.A.S.C. WIN AT SOOKUNPOO.

Low Scoring by Royal Signals.

At Sookunpoo, the Royal Corps of Signals lost to the R.A.S.C. by three wickets.

Taking first knock, the Signallers were all out for 49, Fry and Simpson taking three wickets each for 11 and 12 runs, respectively. The R.A.S.C. replied with 64, Williams taking 4 for 33.

The scores were:—

R.C.S.	49
R.A.S.C.	64

SOMERSETS ENTERTAINED.

FAREWELL CONCERT AT ST. PATRICK'S CLUB.

A delightful programme consisting of musical and comic items was presented by members of the St. Patrick's Club at a farewell concert held on Saturday night to departing members of the Somerset Light Infantry.

Fr. Riganti, President of the Club made a farewell speech, in the course of which he expressed the happy wishes of the Club to the departing military members. In particular Fr. Riganti tendered thanks to Mrs. O'Hara, who is leaving together with the regiment, for the assistance given by her at the various social functions held by the Club.

A fine programme was enjoyed by a large gathering, the outstanding items including musical contributions from the Hawaiian Serenaders, violin solos by Master Abraham, and two very funny numbers by Mr. Harrison. The Medway Glee Party rendered several songs in their own inimitable style, and an amusing sketch "A Sistor to Assist Her" acted by Bransby & Co. was also appreciated by the audience.

At the end of the concert, the audience joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem.

RESULT OF MIXED DOUBLES FINAL.

LADY CHOW PRESENTS PRIZES.

The grounds of the Chinese Recreation Club presented a gay and animated scene on Saturday afternoon, when members of the Club entertained a large number of friends on the occasion of their annual "At Home." The gathering included a large number of ladies, and at the conclusion of the day's exhibition of tennis, Lady Chow presented trophies to prize winners and others who participated in the game.

The opportunity was also taken to play off the final of the Mixed Doubles Championship of the Colony, the tournament organized by the Club. Miss Enid Lo and Mr. M. W. Lo earned the right to the title by defeating Mr. C. A. L. Rumjahn and Mrs. McCaw by 6-2, 6-3.

After tea had been served, the gathering assembled in front of the Clubhouse for the presentation of prizes.

Happy speeches reviewing the Club's success in tennis were made by Mr. Ng Sze Kwong, Chairman of the Club, the Hon. Dr. S. W. Tso and Mr. R. E. Lindsell, President of the Hong Kong Lawn Tennis Association.

DODWELL & CO., LTD.

MANCHESTER NOV. HANDICAP.

WON BY GLORIOUS DEVON.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Nov. 22.

The race for the Manchester November Handicap (1½ miles) resulted as follows:—

Glorious Devon (Lord Glanely), 3 yrs., 7 st. 3 lb. 1
Coligny II. (Mr. A. Macomber), 5 yrs., 7 st. 2
Nestorian (Mrs. E. Wallace), 6 yrs., 6 st. 1 lb. 3

Twenty-eight horses ran.

Won by three lengths; four lengths between second and third.

The betting was:—25 to 1 against Glorious Devon, 40 to 1 against Coligny II., and 100 to 1 against Nestorian.

Irish Sweep Winners.

The winners of the Irish Sweep on the November Handicap are:—

Glorious Devon, drawn by "W. T. and F. R.," Belfast.

Coligny II., drawn by A. P. Dawe, Vancouver, British Columbia.

Nestorian drawn by Mrs. Selina Thompson, Worksop.

LATER.

The initials of the Irish Sweep winner represent the nom-de-plume of Mr. F. G. Prescott, who was born in London, and is now an official employed in the Ulster Ministry of Agriculture at Belfast.

Mr. Prescott went shares with two other men, Thomas Walls and John Timoney, both barmen in Belfast.

The winner of the third prize, Mrs. Thompson, a widow, disposed of part of her ticket.

LATER.

Ireland won the Irish sweepstake on the Manchester November Handicap.

The lucky trio each paid 3/4. Two of the shareholders receive £34,000 each as their share of the first prize, but Mr. Prescott sold half of his share of the ticket for £2,500.

The two employees of licensed premises in Belfast, who each are earning about £3 a week, who also share in the winning ticket, are named Frank Ward and John Torney. They met Prescott by chance, and he persuaded them to share the last ticket in the book.

Prescott's salary is about £300 a year.

LATER.

It transpires that Prescott, Ward and Torney sold a half share of their sweep ticket jointly for £2,500.

The holders of tickets drawing starters in the Manchester November Handicap win £1,065 each.

Prize-Winner's First Step.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 22.

Mr. A. P. Dawe, who won over £30,000 in the Irish Sweep on the Manchester November Handicap, owns a small struggling garage.

He says that his first step will be to clear his business from debt, and then hand the garage over to his two boy assistants.

His ticket was the last in the seller's book.

Dawe twice refused to buy it, and then he purchased it for $2.50 "in order to get rid of the pest."

He refused many offers to buy it.

Winnings Forfeited to Informer.

VICTORIA (B.C.), Nov. 22.

Mr. Arthur Morgan, who won $7,000 in a recent race sweepstake was shocked to receive a Supreme Court writ declaring that his winnings were forfeited to Charles Sunley, an accountant, under a forgotten section of the Criminal Code of Canada, declaring that any money won in a sweepstake or lottery would be immediately forfeited to any informer who made a motion to sue.

The case may involve many further actions in respect to sweepstakes winnings amounting to $500,000 during the past ten years.

Money and Markets.

SINGAPORE SHARE MARKET.

SINGAPORE, Nov. 11.

The market has been rather more cheerful throughout the week, and a fair business has been transacted in local shares, particularly in the Dollar Mining securities section, where a number of investors have been in evidence. Buying orders at current quotations have been difficult to execute and prices have improved in most instances.

Tin and Rubber have moved within narrow limits and United Kingdom Stocks of the latter have receded a further 1920 Tons.

Industrials are slightly weaker although there is no pressure to sell on the part of holders. Dealers in the Loan market have been active and offerings readily absorbed. London Industrials have declined sharply, but Hong Kong Banks are £3 better £113 Middle.

Mining.

A considerable number of transactions have taken place in Sungei Luas from 82½ to 88 cents buyers over, Kuchais were done from 52 to 50 cents, Kinta Tin Dredges 87 to 89 cents, Penawats 40 to 41 cents, Malaya Consolidateds 14 and 14½ cents and Batau Caves 40 cents. A good demand for Raubs continues, shares being taken from $14.45 to $14.75, whilst Killinghalls found buyers at 6/9, Takuapas 7/-. Petalings $3.85 and Sungei Ways $2.00. There are further enquiries for Batu Caves, Petalings, and Sungei Luas also for Klang Rivers, Pengkalen Prefs. and Talams. A few Linguis and Rahman Hydraulics are on offer.

Rubbers.

Practically nothing has been done in Dollar Rubbers and previous orders for Brunei Uniteds, Changkat Serdangs, Sungei Bagans, Teluk Ansons, Haytors, Indragiris, Tapahs and Pajams remain unfilled. A bid is wanted for a parcel of Bentas, also for Semanggols and Jimahs.

Industrials.

Straits Traders have remained steady throughout the week and a considerable business has taken place at $25.75. Small parcels of Straits Steamships were absorbed at $240 and Robinsons were marketed at $8.75 and $8.70, Fraser & Neaves $13.85, United Engineers $8.00 and $8.05, Wearnes $6.40 and a block of Singapore Gold Storages changed hands at $4.30 ex. div. United Engineer Prefs. were put through at $12.12 with more available at the figure and Hong Kong Banks at $908 (Straits). At closing Malacca Electrics are weaker at $1.65 and there are enquiries for United Engineers at $7.90 and small lots of Gammons and Fraser & Neave Preference at market rate. Fresh Foods offer, also McAlisters and Thornycrofts at approximately Middle Price quotations. London cabled advices are appended: Shell Transports £3.13.9, British American Tobaccos £5.2.6, Duffs 3/9, Dunlops 11/9 and Imperial Tobaccos £4.13.9.

CUBAN SUGAR INDUSTRY.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE AT BRUSSELS.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.

Senor Viriato Gutierrez, a Cuban Senator and head of the committee representing Cuban sugar growers, before leaving for Europe, expressed optimism that the international sugar conference in Brussels on December 4 would evolve a definite plan to align production and consumption.

He believed that the participation of Dutch growers, who had not taken part in previous conferences, was a good augury for success.

CHINA LIGHT & POWER CO.

PROPOSED DIVIDEND.

The Board of Directors of The China Light & Power Co. (1918), Ltd., have resolved to recommend at the annual meeting of the Company to be held on December 15, 1930, a final dividend in respect of the financial year ended September 30, 1930, of 50 cents per share on the "Old" Shares, 6.44 cents per share on the 1930-Issue Shares allotted on February 7, 1930, and proportionate amounts on the 1930-Issue Shares allotted subsequent to February 7, 1930.

DEPRESSION IN PRICE OF SILVER.

LOW PRICE DUE TO FOREIGN SELLING.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.

Replying to a request by Senator Oddie, of Nevada, that the Department of Commerce should call a conference for the relief of the widespread depression in the price of silver, Mr. Lamont, Secretary for Commerce, said that he believed that the low price was due to foreign selling of silver stocks. Only an international agreement to prevent this could help the situation.
